NO. 127—SEVENTY-THIRD YEAR | VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1931 | TWENTY-TWO PAGES

Claims Dominion Control of Radio Unconstitutional

Charles Lanctot, K.C., Says Federal Action Would Encroach on Property and Civil Rights of Citizens of Provinces—Admits Jurisdiction Over Broadcasting in Certain Instances

Questions International Agreement; Case Is Expected to End Today

OTTAWA, May 7 (CP).—Control of radio broadcasting by the Dominion Government is an infringement of the property and civil rights of the people as citizens of the province, it was argued today before the Supreme Court of Canada, when the Province of Quebec began its submissions in the radio reference. Charles Lanctot, K.C., was the spokesman for Quebec.

Mr. Lanctot intimated the province did not claim full control over radio. It was admitted the Dominion should control radio as it is used in connection with shipping, in the postal service and for purposes of military and naval defence. On the other hand, radio broadcasting for private purposes should come under the jurisdiction of the province, particularly in cases of small stations whose normal range did not extend beyond the borders of the province.

NO RIGHT TO MAKE PACT

International agreements and treaties, regulating the use of radio, were necessary, the Quebec lawyer said, in fulfillment of them the Dominion had the right to take action affecting radio, but the Dominion had no right to enter an international agreement with regard to a matter of provincial concern which would have the effect of compelling a province to do something it did not want to do.

Mr. Lanctot said that in the Provinces of Quebec and Ontario, the beam wireless system could be used in communication between the northern parts and the southern areas, in development and exploration work without interfering with interprovincial traffic or going beyond the borders of the province. This would certainly be a local undertaking subject to provincial control.

END FEDERAL SIDE

Earlier in the day W. N. Tilley, K.C., chief counsel for the Dominion, concluded his argument, and Brooke Claxton, representing the Canadian Radio League argued in support of the Dominion's claims.

Mr. Lanctot and Aime Geoffrion, K.C., associate Quebec counsel, will conclude the case for that province tomorrow, and there will be a brief argument in support of the provincial case for counsel for Ontario and New Brunswick. It is expected the case will end tomorrow afternoon.

JAPAN ANXIOUS TO TRADE HERE

Private Importers May Extend Purchases of B.C. Rabbits and Fur

Pleased with the quality of British Columbia-bred Angora rabbits, thousands of which were imported by Japan last year, trade emissaries of Tokio were in the city this week, inquiring into facilities for an extension of shipments this year; also if arrangements could be made to ship fur-bearing rabbits, mink and foxes from British Columbia.

S. Chiya, representing All Brothers, Tokio, called on the markets branch, Department of Agriculture, and will interview Mainland authorities relative to fur exports before returning to Japan.

British Columbia Angora rabbits are being used in the development of a definite plan to foster wool production in Japan, with Government encouragement. Steady shipments have been made from Vancouver and Victoria, the British Columbia animals being found superior to all others landed in the Orient.

Japanese importers are seeking to increase these importations, and would consider purchasing fur-bearing stock as well as wool-giving animals. Inquiries are to be made of the British Columbia Game Commission to see if mink and foxes may also be shipped under the plan.

Six Die in Big Floods In Germany

BERLIN, May 7 (AP).—At least six persons were known to have lost their lives and great damage was done throughout Southwestern Germany today as floods swept a wide area, following a cloudburst, which was said to be almost without a precedent in severity. Lightning and hail accompanied torrents of rain which continued almost all day.

Four persons, including a little girl, were drowned when a bridge collapsed near Hosbach, and two men drowned in villages near Stuttgart.

Roads, bridges and railroad tracks were torn up everywhere throughout the area, fields were flooded, inhabitants were marooned in houses or had fled to the hills, schools and factories were closed, livestock perished and in some areas the water was said to be rushing over the tops of trees.

ELECTED AS REALTY HEAD

A. Carmichael Is to Be New President of Board in This City

MANY GUESTS WILL ATTEND GATHERING

The Victoria Real Estate Board holds its annual meeting in Spencer's dining-room at noon today. The meeting is an important one in view of the fact that the organization performs a real duty in the community as was made manifest when, some weeks ago, it grappled with the taxation situation and played a most important part in the securing of a reduced mill rate for this year in the city.

The real estate board is not confined in its efforts to the advancing of the interests of its members alone. It stands as the spokesman in turn for the property owners of the city, who are privileged to become members of the organization in an associate capacity. Its interests are devoted to the welfare of the city as a whole, and from time to time this is shown in the activities of the board.

At the meeting today Major M. Kirkpatrick-Crockett, who has been president, will retire from that post after efficient service, and his place will be taken by the president-elect, Alfred Carmichael, who has manifested on many occasions a laudable public spirit. In the two elected vice-presidents, Robert Musgrave and Alex Gillespie, the board has two very prominent citizens. The new executive committee will include these three and in addition

British Air Hero Dead

FLIGHT-Lieutenant H. R. D. Waghorn, winner of the Schneider Cup Trophy for 1929, died at Cambridge Military Hospital yesterday from injuries received when his plane crashed near Farnborough Tuesday. In the race he set what was then the world's record for air speed when he flew his ship at an average of 328.63 miles an hour.

Hundred Overcome Battling $7,000,000 Buffalo Armory Fire

Huge Structure and Equipment Completely Destroyed —Church and Parsonage Also Razed—Panic Spreads Throughout Neighborhood

BUFFALO, May 7 (AP).—Tangled heaps of steel cooled slowly tonight as streams were played on them by fire companies, rear guard of these who fought to check the flames which destroyed the 106th Field Artillery Armory, a church and parsonage last night. Fire officials estimated the loss at $7,000,000.

More than 100 city firemen were overcome during the several hours of battling the flames. All were expected to recover.

The Armory occupied one of the highest points of land in the city, and a southwest wind blowing from the waterfront scattered brands over a wide area, causing many incipient blazes. Most serious was the one which destroyed the American-Scandinavian Church, four blocks distant.

Panic spread through the neighborhood as sparks flew about. Householders standing on the roofs of their homes fought the brands with wet blankets and garden hose.

Four groups of investigators were inquiring into the origin of the fire and why it gained tremendous headway before discovery.

Storms Interfere With Resumption Of Ocean Flight

NEMURO, Japan, May 7 (AP).—Fierce storms beat back the light seaplane of Seiji Yoshihara to this port today after he had taken off for Murotan Bay, in the volcanic Kuriles Islands, on the third hop of his flight of 6,268 miles from Tokio to San Francisco. The young Japanese, with an extremely hazardous air journey before him across the Bering Sea and North Pacific Ocean, has been held here since Tuesday.

Rumanians Break With Germany on Trade Conference

Government Refuses to Permit Delegation to Enter Bucharest While Little Entente Parley Is Held—Germans Claim Delegates "Slighted"

BUCHAREST, May 7 (AP).—Refusal of the Rumanian Government to permit a German commercial treaty delegation to enter Bucharest while the conference of the Little Entente is sitting, has developed into a diplomatic incident. The Government suddenly broke off negotiations, although the German representatives were already on their way.

The charge d'affaires of the German Embassy today informed the Rumanian Foreign Minister the German delegates had been slighted "in a most uncivil manner" and Germany would wait before reopening negotiations.

Commercial circles here were distressed over the affair.

They learned Germany was willing to make very favorable concessions to obtain the commercial treaty. She was willing to bind herself, it was learned, to buy 150,000 carloads of Rumanian oats and 50,000 tons of wheat, at very favorable prices, and was prepared to grant a very considerable loan even before the treaty was signed.

The prevailing belief here was that Rumania was prepared to proceed with negotiations but that Czechoslovakia and Jugoslavia, other members of the entente, reminded her of their duty toward the union and toward France.

KING GIVES INSTRUCTIONS

The wishes of the other two countries, it was said, were conveyed to King Carol, when he and King Alexander of Jugoslavia met Monday in a motorboat in the middle of the Danube. After the meeting of the kings, Carol is said to have instructed Foreign Minister Chika and Finance Minister Argetoianu to discontinue the German negotiations.

A Cabinet meeting which was to discuss the affair today was postponed until tomorrow.

ACCUSED ADJUDGED INSANE

PRINCE RUPERT, May 7.—E. Jussila, charged with the murder of C. Yoch, farmer, near Houston, was adjudged insane at the assizes here and committed to Essondale by Justice W. C. Macdonald.

GOVERNMENT OF NORWAY RESIGNS

Parliament Approves on Vote of 57 to 55 Motion Deploring Granting of Lilleborg Concession

OSLO, Norway, May 7 (AP).—The Norwegian Government resigned today after the Oldelsting (Parliament) approved by a vote of fifty-seven to fifty-five a resolution deploring the granting of the so-called Lilleborg concession.

The concession, a complicated commercial transaction, was granted a year ago by the Government. It aroused strong feeling.

Under its terms, the De No Fa Company, which owns the northern factories of Fredrikstad and half of the capital of which is held by the British Unilever Bracket Company, was permitted to acquire half the capital of the Lilleborg Company, a soap manufacturing concern.

Governor Prorogues P.E.I. Legislature; Election This Year

CHARLOTTETOWN, May 7 (CP).—The fourth session of the forty-first General Assembly of Prince Edward Island, which met on March 24, was prorogued today, His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Charles Dalton giving assent to some forty bills. A general provincial election will probably be held before the end of the year.

CONSERVATIVES WIN ELECTION

H. P. Latham Has Majority of 2,189 Over Liberal Opponent in Yorkshire

SCARBOROUGH, Yorkshire, May 7 (CP).—With a slightly reduced majority, the Conservatives retained the traditionally-Conservative division of Scarborough and Whitby in yesterday's by-election, the result being announced today.

H. P. Latham, Conservative, was elected with 21,618 votes against 19,429 for J. Ramsay Muir, Liberal candidate, a Conservative majority of 2,189.

LAST ELECTION

In the last general election, Captain Sidney Herbert, Conservative member since 1922, was re-elected with 20,710 votes to 17,544 for H. P. Gisborne, Liberal, and 4,645 for H. D. Rountree, Labor, a Conservative majority of 3,166.

Captain Herbert recently retired from the House on account of ill health.

LIBERALS' EFFORTS

The Liberals made a determined effort to put Scarborough in the Liberal column, and Mr. Muir received the energetic assistance of Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George. The vigor of the Liberal fight was reflected in the increase of nearly 2,000 in the Liberal vote, while the Conservative vote increased by less than 1,000.

Mr. Latham, the new member, is only twenty-six years of age. He was the youngest member of the London County Council on his election to that venerable body a few years ago.

There are still five vacancies in the House of Commons.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH

VANCOUVER, May 7 (CP).—Accidental death was the verdict of a coroner's jury which inquired this afternoon into the demise of Stanley Craig, aged fourteen, fatally injured when the bicycle he was riding collided with an auto on Belmont Avenue at the foot of Savamat Street hill. Claude Jackson, driver of the car, was exonerated from blame. The fatality occurred Tuesday evening.

LORDS REJECT MAIN CLAUSE IN GOV'T BILL

Main Provisions of Agricultural Utilization Bill Are Turned Down

ACTION MAY LEAD TO BITTER DISCUSSION

"Peers Versus the People" May Be Cry in Next General Election

LONDON, May 7 (AP).—The House of Lords today threw out all of the main provisions of the Government's agricultural utilization bill by rejecting part one of the measure. The vote was 82 to 31.

Observers believe this action may precipitate a crisis for the bill which opponents have described as a measure of unadulterated socialism. It already has passed all readings in the House of Commons and the Government is known to set great store by it.

TURNS DOWN CLAUSES

Previously the House of Lords had changed the proposal by turning down two clauses of the bill dealing with establishment of an agricultural land corporation, and with the power of the Government to acquire land for use as demonstration farms.

The third reading of the bill in the House of Lords is expected within a few days.

It is regarded as impossible the Government will accept the plan in its mutilated form. The only way therefore, to get it into law, would be to invoke the Parliament act under which it could be passed over the Lords' veto in two years.

PLAIN SPEAKING EXPECTED

Uncertainty as to whether the present Government will be in office then, and irritation which many of its members are known to feel regarding what they consider obstructive and hostile tactics of the House of Lords, seem likely to lead to plain speaking from the Government side.

Commentators are looking for a likely issue for the general elections in the controversy. They think that the cry of "Peers versus the people" is well within the bounds of possibility and might be welcomed by the Laborites.

DEMANDS CHIEF MAKE APOLOGY

VANCOUVER, May 7 (CP).—Damages for alleged libel may be sought by Henry Burgess, who has been asked to resign from the police commission, against Police Chief W. J. Bingham, as a result of a portion of the chief's report to the City Council last April 13, which led to the council's request for Burgess' resignation.

Mr. Burgess, through his solicitor, has written to Chief Bingham, demanding a public retraction and apology for that portion of his report in which Mr. Burgess was alleged to have asked the chief whether there "was any money hanging on to this commission job."

At Wednesday afternoon's meeting of the civic finance committee, it was disclosed that Chief Bingham has approached the city legal department to ascertain whether members of that office will defend him in the event of a libel action being instituted. He was informed, it is said, that such action is not within the duties of the department, unless specifically stated by the City Council.

MAN INJURED AT TRACK CROSSING

H. Buckle, Jr., Has Narrow Escape When Auto Collides With Train at Lake Hill

Harry Buckle, Jr., Old West Saanich Road, received painful but not serious injuries at 2:30 a.m., when he collided with a southbound C.N.R. freight train at the Lake Hill intersection on Quadra Street. Mr. Buckle was driving north when he struck the third car from the rear of the southbound train.

The injured man was attended by Dr. Douglas W. Graham and taken to St. Joseph's Hospital in the C. & C. ambulance.

The automobile burst into flame following the collision and required the attention of the fire department before the blaze could be extinguished. The car was badly damaged.

Chief Allan Rankin and Constable P. K. Cummings took charge of traffic at the scene of the accident.

At a late hour the hospital reported Mr. Buckle was suffering injuries to his leg and face.

The train crew declared that the escape of Mr. Buckle was nothing short of a miracle. At the instant of the impact the coupe burst into flames. Acting by instinct the young man opened the door and sprang out.

The train, which was proceeding slowly, came to a dead stop and the crew rushed to the burning car, only to find the occupant had escaped.

Had Mr. Buckle not had presence of mind to swing his car to the right when he saw that he could not avoid a collision, he would have struck between the moving cars, it was stated.

British Scientist Found Safe on Greenland Ice by Searching Sledge Party

Augustine Courtauld, Wealthy Explorer of Air Route Over Arctic, Was Feared Lost Without Food or Shelter—Capt. Albin Ahrenberg Arrives With Welcome Supplies for Rescuers

Ships and Planes Were Rushed to Scene; Flyer Will Seek Professor

COPENHAGEN, May 7 (AP).—Augustine Courtauld, the young British scientist who was believed to have been lost on the Greenland icecap, was found today and is on his way back to the base camp near the Greenland coast.

News that the scientist, for whom several parties have been searching for more than two weeks, had been found, was contained in a wireless message received here from Angmagsalik, Greenland, by the Danish Ministry of Marine.

The message said that Courtauld was returning to the base of the British Arctic air expedition, of which he was a member, with H. G. Watkins, leader of the expedition.

The newspaper Social Demokraten, in a dispatch for publication tomorrow, will say that Courtauld was found by tha Watkins sledge party only a few hours after the arrival of Captain Albin Ahrenberg, noted flyer, in his rescue plane.

BROUGHT WELCOME FOOD

Ahrenberg, who flew over the icecap from Angmagsalik, the newspaper will say, brought welcome food and supplies to both the rescued and the rescuers.

The message received from Ahrenberg at Angmagsalik stated that the flyer intended to continue on 100 kilometres farther across the icecap in an effort to ascertain whether Professor Albert Wegener, German scientist, who is gathering weather data, is safe.

The scene of the twenty-seven-year-old explorer's lone vigil was a point 140 miles from the west coast of Greenland and 7,000 feet up on the vast plateau of eternal ice.

GAVE RISE TO FEARS

Fear that he was in a desperate plight from cold and shortage of provisions increased as no word was received from him and after a search party, led by Watkins, failed to locate his station in March. Immediately a series of relief expeditions were organized.

In addition to Captain Ahrenberg's dash to Greenland, the Icelandic patrol ship Odinn, carrying a plane, and the inspection ship Hvidbjorn steamed to the edge of the coastal ice barrier. Neither was able to aid materially in the search.

Another plane in charge of the well-known pilot, Major Sydney Cotton, was shipped to Iceland from England last Monday.

Million Workmen May Go on Strike Today in England

LONDON, May 7 (AP).—Labor disputes in the building trades may result in a strike of 1,000,000 men unless an agreement is reached tomorrow concerning expansion of the working week from forty-seven to forty-eight hours and a reduction in the pay scale for piecework and overtime.

Representatives of forty unions involved have agreed to modification of the piecework reduction, but they are holding out for an additional hour's work a week.

REVIEWS AID TO FARMERS

Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture, Delivers Maiden Speech

NEW CREDIT SCHEME WILL BE ANNOUNCED

OTTAWA, May 7 (CP).—In a speech recording Government achievements for agriculture since he took over that portfolio, Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture, aroused the wild enthusiasm of Conservative supporters in the House of Commons tonight.

It was the minister's long-awaited maiden speech.

For weeks Opposition members have been demanding that the Government declare its agricultural policy. Finally, through the medium of an amendment to supply asserting the Government failure to enunciate an agricultural policy, the Opposition brought the demand to a head.

IS CHEERED REPEATEDLY

Mr. Weir, Minister of Agriculture, spoke to crowded galleries and chambers to Conservative benches which cheered him again and again, and to an Opposition which protested at times the statements which he made.

The minister indicated what had been done since he assumed office rather than what he proposed to do. He told of steps taken to develop the British market for Canadian cattle; of negotiations with steamship lines and cattle men, and of a fair measure of success resulting therefrom.

Leave to Appeal Is Accorded

REGINA, May 7 (CP).—Leave to appeal direct to the Privy Council against the ruling of the Appeal Court of Saskatchewan which declared the Grain Marketing Act, 1931, ultra vires of the Saskatchewan Legislature was granted this afternoon at a special sitting of the Saskatchewan Court of Appeal.

The application was made on behalf of the Saskatchewan Co-operative Wheat Producers, Limited, by R. H. Milliken, K.C.

By the terms of the judgment the Saskatchewan Co-operative Wheat Producers, Limited, is required to furnish approved security for costs in the sum of $2,500 within two months and to forward to the judicial committee of the Privy Council in England, by August 1, the complete record of the appeal, viz., all papers and records issued by the courts, copies of arguments of the various legal actions, and, in short, copies of everything connected with the appeal in order that the lords of the Privy Council may have before them the complete record.

Wins Great Ovation for Maiden Speech

HON. ROBERT WEIR

Minister of Agriculture, in his first speech in Parliament yesterday, outlined the activities of his department since he joined the Bennett Cabinet.

INJURIES FATAL TO NOTED FLYER

Britain's Greatest Aerobatic Aviator Passes Away After Plane Accident

ALDERSHOT, England, May 7 (AP).—Flight-Lieutenant H. R. D. Waghorn, British winner of the Schneider Cup Trophy for 1929, died at Cambridge Military Hospital today from injuries received when his plane crashed near Farnborough, Tuesday.

Lieut. Waghorn and a fellow pilot, E. R. Alexander, took to their parachutes when their plane went out of control in a high gale. The former landed on the roof of a shed, sustaining injuries to his head and limbs. Alexander was not as seriously hurt.

The flyer underwent an operation last night but gradually grew worse. His wife maintained a ceaseless vigil by his bedside until he died. He is also survived by a son.

Lieut. Waghorn attained a speed of 328.63 miles per hour in retaining the Schneider Cup for Great Britain two years ago. Starting to fly at the age of eighteen, he was early nicknamed "Daisy" in recognition of a descent into a daisy field and later was heralded as one of Great Britain's premier aerobatic aviators.

DUST STORM CAUSES AUTOMOBILE WRECK; DRIVER LOSES LIFE

SPOKANE, May 7 (AP).—Peter Carbon, road contractor of Spokane, was killed today in an automobile wreck caused by a dust storm.

Traveling west from Spokane under a pall of dust, Carbon failed to make a turn on the Sunset Highway, five miles east of Stratford, and the car shot from the highway, pinning him beneath.

Four Doukhobors Arrested After Refusing to Answer Summons to Nelson Court

NELSON, May 7.—Bench warrants were issued here today by Stipendiary Magistrate John Cartmel in provincial police court, for the arrest of Peter N. Maloff, John J. Perepelkin, Peter K. Kazaloff and Nick A. Jarekoff, four Sons of Freedom Doukhobors on whom summonses had been served, directing them to appear here to answer an assult charge, which orders they failed to obey.

The four men, who had caused a letter to be delivered to Magistrate Cartmel Wednesday announcing their intention to pay no attention to the summonses, as they did not believe in courts, and further, were not guilty, were rounded up by the Provincial Police this afternoon at Thrums, and placed in the provincial jail here. They ill appear in court Friday morning.

It was while a load of household effects, belonging to some members of the Sons of Freedom colony at Brilliant, was being transported on a truck to Thrums Monday, as part of the "peaceful eviction" programme being carried out by the Christian Community of Universal Brotherhood, that the alleged assault occurred on Alex Baulin, an elder of the community colony at Brilliant, who was in charge of the truck.

Baulin had his clothes torn off him in a fracas that accompanied the discharge of the household goods at Thrums. He also sustained bruises. When the affair was over Baulin was nude.

When the four accused Sons of Freedom failed to present themselves at 10:30 a.m. today, half an hour was allowed to elapse by way of grace, and then court convened.

PAIR WOUNDED IN GUN FIGHT

Youthful Desperado Keeps Detachment of New York Police at Bay for Hour

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP).—10,000 spectators today watched officers battle for an hour with machine guns and tear gas bombs and eventually capture Francis "Two-Gun" Crowley, youthful desperado, and Rudolph Duringer, reputedly confessed slayer.

The men, together with Helen Walsh, sixteen, were trapped by police on the top floor of a rooming house. Ignoring commands to surrender, Crowley, whose room contained a small arsenal, kept a big detachment of police at bay. He finally surrendered with his companions after he was wounded in both legs and the officers hewed through the roof of the apartment.

CONFESS TWO SLAYINGS

Two hours after the arrests, police said Crowley and Durlinger had confessed to two slayings and the wounding of a detective.

Durlinger, they said, admitted the slaying of Virginia Brannen, a taxi dancer, in Yonkers. Crowley was claimed to have confessed to the fatal shooting of Patrolman Frederick Hirsch Tuesday night.

The other shooting victim was Detective George Schaedel, of the Bronx, who trapped Crowley on March 14 in an office building.

THEATRE MANAGER IS ROBBED OF $250

VANCOUVER, May 7 (CP).—A lone gunman obtained the day's takings from the Columbia Theatre when he held up L. Burde, manager Beverley Apartments, Nelson Street, shortly after 10 o'clock tonight, obtaining approximately $250, according to a police report.

Burde said he drew up in his car to his residence and when he was about to enter the door a small man loitering nearby accosted him. The man, producing a revolver, forced him to step back to his car and then took from his hand a black bag containing the money.

The theatre manager was sent into the door of his apartment and the bandit disappeared.

OTTAWA, May 7 (CP). — Pat Burns, widely-known rancher and meat packer of Calgary, is prominently mentioned on Parliament Hill as a possible successor to the late Senator P. E. Lessard, The Ottawa Journal says today.

New Party Makes Change of Policy

LONDON, May 7 (CP).—An important change of policy was announced today by the new party under Sir Oswald Mosley, wealthy young Socialist and former member of Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald's Cabinet.

Instead of fighting all by-elections as they occur, the party will conserve all its energies for the next general elections. Sir Oswald, when he formed his party some weeks ago, announced they would contest all by-elections.

Herr Richard Tauber, the Austrian tenor, is reported to receive $6,000 a week for playing the leading role in Franz Lehar's new operetta, "The Land of Smiles," during its production in London.

Flames Sweep Various Communities in Japan—High Winds Hinder Firemen

PROPERTY LOSS TO TOTAL $2,000,000

TOKIO, May 7 (AP).—Fourteen persons, all Japanese, were burned to death and property valued at $2,000,000 was destroyed in a series of fires which swept various Japanese communities today. High winds hindered firemen.

The most destructive fire was at Yamanaka Hot Springs, in Ishikawa prefecture, where four lives were lost. Thirty hotels were wiped out at the resort, 100 persons were injured and 4,000 made homeless, flames also destroyed 800 frail Japanese dwellings, the business section of the resort, postoffice, police station, banks, the town hall, a temple and schoolhouses.

Four persons were burned to death in Yokohama by a fire which destroyed the Chinese Consulate and sixty dwellings. In Tokio six persons lost their lives in a fire which swept the thickly populated Shiba ward.

A fire in Tokyama City destroyed fifty-seven homes; fifty-three dwellings were burned in a fire at Akamatau, Tottori prefecture, and twenty homes were consumed by a fire at Tanamura in Wakayama prefecture.

J. C. Bridgman, James Forman, R. H. B. Ker and A. R. Wolfenden, and the two immediate past presidents, Major Kirkpatrick-Crockett and S. G. Clark. Hubert Lethaby, who has established a reputation for efficiency, will continue in the position of secretary. The executive of the board is therefore a very strong one, well adapted to look after the interests of property owners in Victoria.

At the lunch-on meeting today there will be present a number of officials of the province and of the municipalities comprising Greater Victoria with whom the board is brought in close contact during the year. The invited guests include the following:

Mayor Anscomb, Reeve Elrick, Reeve Crouch, H. G. Garrett, superintendent of real estate agents, etc.; R. Baird, inspector of municipalities; Municipal Clerks F. Hunter (city), R. R. F. Sewell (Saanich), G. H. Pullen (Esquimalt) and H. F. Blandy (Oak Bay); D. A. Macdonald, city comptroller; E. C. Smith, city treasurer; G. A. Okell, city assessor; H. S. Pringle, city solicitor; F. Preston, city engineer, and J. Baxter, secretary of city committees and mayor's secretary.

Chamber Resolutions Committee Considers Agricultural Project

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP).—Proposal that world agricultural production be adapted to consumption by international settlement is being considered by the resolutions committee of the International Chamber of Commerce. Approved today by agricultural representatives, the measure was passed on to the resolutions committee to determine whether it should be referred to the entire Congress.

It would have the Congress recommend not only adaption of production to consumption by international settlement, but crop financing and "amendment of rigorous agricultural protective measures, reducing of difficulties in importing agricultural products and suppression of export premiums," as well.

Big Landowner Dies

LONDON, May 7 (CP).—James Even Bruce Baillie, M.V.O., former Conservative member of the House of Commons for Inverness-shire, and one of the largest landowners in the United Kingdom, died today at the age of seventy-two. He owned about 92,000 acres in Scotland.

NEW SURTAX IS DEFENDED

Hon. J. W. Jones Discusses 1 Per Cent Levy in Address at Cloverdale

CLOVERDALE, May 7 (CP).—If he were working for a private corporation instead of in the interests of the people of the province, he would require a salary of $25,000 to $50,000 for what he was doing, Hon. J. W. Jones, Minister of Finance, stated at a well-attended meeting here Wednesday night.

Mr. Jones said he had a staff of 500 and seventeen sub-departments, and worked fourteen hours a day. He had to find ways and means of raising $28,000,000, and had investments to the value of $40,000,000 to look after. He found it easier to look after the $40,000,000 than to raise the $28,000,000.

The 1 per cent tax on wages and income, said Mr. Jones, did not mean more than a pair of hose to a young women and a picture show or two fewer, or not so many smokes to the young man; and while they were doing their bit towards the unemployment situation, they themselves were holding down positions. The banks had been taxed an additional 20 per cent, and the big corporations had suffered an increase of 12 per cent.

Other speakers included D. E. Mackenzie, who, drawing attention to the cut made in the university grant, said that he was pleased to hear that Mr. Jones was favorably inclined to revenue-producing investments, agricultural education being in that class. Agriculture has become a science, and everyone would like to see the faculty of agriculture, with its research work, maintained.

Women's Garment Workers' Strike In Toronto Ends

TORONTO, May 7 (CP). — The women's garment workers' strike, involving local members of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, has ended. The strike had been successful in obtaining for the 1,000 workers the conditions asked of the garment manufacturers last February and which were refused at the time. A forty-four hour week and the union scale for overtime labor were the principal demands of the workers.

Hold Day of Prayer

Principal Ellis, M.A., B.D., of the Vancouver Bible School, will be the special speaker at a meeting of the Shantymen's Christian Association, to be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Cridge Memorial Hall. Rev. J. McTurk will preside.

During the day, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., a day of prayer for Vancouver Island will be held.

The following clergymen have promised to preside during the prayer session: Dr. W. A. Daly, Rev. J. B. Rowell, Rev. C. T. Scott, D.D.; E. G. Marriott, Rev. Cox, Rev. J. McTurk, Rev. A. de B. Owen and others. The Island missionaries will be in attendance.

KELOWNA MILL BURNED

KELOWNA—Fire of unknown origin destroyed the Crawford sawmills with an estimated damage of $25,000. More than 800,000 feet of cut lumber was in the yards, and most of it was burned. The mill and machinery also were completely destroyed. Some of the lumber was removed. No insurance was carried.

HUNDREDS OF WILD HORSES BRING NEW PROBLEM FOR GOV'T

CALGARY, May 7 (CP).—Wild horses, roaming Southern Alberta in hundreds, brought a new problem for the Provincial Government here yesterday.

A delegation representing sheep ranchers met Premier J. E. Brownlee in conference and declared that the wild horses, especially in dry areas, were driving the sheep from streams and causing a serious problem. The delegation asked the Provincial Government to take some action towards destroying the animals.

REVIEWS AID TO FARMERS

BUTTER AND AGREEMENTS

He discussed the butter market, claiming that through efforts of the Government, prices for the Canadian product had been kept up until a few weeks ago, when the market broke. The eight-cent duty on importations under the British preference and verbal agreements with Australia and New Zealand had helped to hold the market, he claimed.

The negotiations carried on so as to enable Western Farmers to obtain banking credit, were described. These had culminated in an offer of assistance by the Dominion Government, Mr. Weir asserted.

"When the offer is known," he said, "I am sure the honorable gentlemen opposite will blush for having discussed this question in the way they have done."

FARMER RELIEF

He realized, said Mr. Weir, that the policies which he had enunciated would not bring immediate relief to the farmer. He knew the load of mortgages and debt that the Western farmer was carrying. He knew that it required immediate relief, but that load was not put on the farmer since August, he reminded the House.

The minister directed some scorching shots across the floor. He particularly singled out Hon. W. R. Motherwell, his predecessor in office, and Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King.

TELEGRAPH LINE BUILDING

NELSON—Construction of the permanent pole line along the route of the Kootenay Landing-Procter link, and from Procter on to Nelson, for the Canadian Pacific commercial and railway telegraph wires and for the British Columbia Telephone Company's trunk lines was started Monday, with two gangs. A third gang will be put on next week, bringing the number of men engaged on the project, which will take the entire Summer to complete, to about sixty.

A Scotsman in London hailed a taxicab, but so broad was the fare's accent that the driver did not understand him.

"Bless ma heart," said the fare, "is there naebody in this toon understands plain Scots?"

"Wot about taking you to Scotland Yard?" suggested the driver.

"Aye," said the Scotsman, "that soonds a likely place. You tak' me there and I'll bet some o' them will ken me."

BIG DEMAND FOR STORAGE

Orange Growers of California Want Total Space of Ships

PLAN UNLOADING FRUIT IN EUROPE

The orange growers of California have offered to take the whole of the cold storage space on all ships sailing from this coast to Europe from now until November for the purpose of handling the crop which is on hand there. This is the information which R. Robertson, the head of produce dealers of the R. Robertson & Co., Limited, in Vancouver, gave upon his arrival here this morning on the new C.N.R. steamer Prince Robert.

In many instances the shipping companies have accepted this offer. There are others, however, which have felt that such a course would not be fair towards other shippers who might want to dispose of products.

A frost in Spain, which shortened the crop there, is given as affording a profitable market in the United Kingdom and elsewhere in Europe for the Pacific Coast crop, which was a bumper one this year.

Mr. Robertson, with his wife, joined the Prince Robert on the Atlantic Coast and made the trip to this coast. The voyage, he says, was very enjoyable.

MAYOR TAYLOR WILL ATTEND FUNERAL OF SISTER IN MICHIGAN

VANCOUVER, May 7 (CP).—Mayor Louis D. Taylor, now in the East, received news of the death of his sister, Mrs. Eugene Cooley, in Lansing, Mich., on Tuesday afternoon. She was the only surviving member of the mayor's family.

His worship will attend the funeral at Lansing and will be absent from Ottawa for about three days. He will return there to complete civic business with which he and City Solicitor J. B. Williams are occupied.

FROST DAMAGE LESS

PENTICTON—Frost damage in Penticton seems less severe than at first thought. The chill which visited the orchards for three nights in succession about ten days ago is bringing less loss than the original estimates indicated. This applies not only in Penticton but also in Oliver, although it is quite apparent that on the project there will hardly be half a crop of fruit this year. Much will depend on the June drop, as many blossoms, weakened by the frost, may form into fruit only to fall in June. The present estimates of frost damage for Penticton are: Cherries, 15 per cent; peaches, 5 to 10 per cent; apricots, 5 per cent; apples and pears, 2 to 5 per cent. Some orchardists on the flat and in pockets were severely hit, particularly with soft fruits. Other growers with air drainage do not appear to have been touched.

France has decreed that if the date of a cheque drawn in the country is written in figures instead of words the Government will assess a penalty of 6 per cent of the amount of the cheque.

FESTIVAL NEAR ITS LAST LAP

Violin Classes Adjudicated Yesterday—Schools Are Awarded Shields

OAKLANDS, BURNSIDE AND CLOVERDALE IN

Yesterday witnessed the addition of the violin section competitions to the Musical Festival syllabus, and the Progressive Thought Temple, where Professor Franck Eichenlaub, of Portland, is adjudicating these classes, witnessed a change of interest and personnel with the withdrawing of the elocution work and the introduction of the stringed instrument enthusiasts. The classes proved a little bit too heavy, numerically, with the result that an alteration in the day's programme had to be made, throwing the finals of the senior section (Class 80) over to the evening because there was not time for them in the afternoon. This replaced the finals of Class 79 (intermediate), which were settled in the very late afternoon.

At First United Church interest centred chiefly in the school choir contests. Sir Hugh Roberton's award of highest marks to Boys' Central School in Grade V competition for the Victoria School Trustees Challenge Shield was enormously popular, there seeming no doubt in the mind of the audience that this little ensemble conducted by Miss Elliott would get the best marks. The next best was the Burnside School choir, conducted by Miss Polson, this coming only one mark behind the winner of the heat which took 172. Burnside School choir, conducted by George Green, took one mark more than this in Grade VI competition (Class 15), for the Arion Club Challenge Shield.

These exciting contests and their results determined the winners of the two shields. To Miss Beall went the School Trustees Challenge Shield for classes 12, 13 and 14, her Grade III choir from Oaklands School having taken 173 marks in Class 12. Cloverdale School choir, Grade VIII, Class 17, conducted by P. C. Routley, shared with Burnside School, Grade VI, Class 15, conducted by George Green, the honors for possession of the Arion Club Challenge Shield, each choir winning 173 marks.

The finalists for the Arion Club Shield for Classes 15, 16 and 17 were as follows: Class 15, Grade VI, Burnside School, George Green, 173; Class 16, Grade VII, Tolmie School, Miss Ina Tait, 172; Class 17, Grade VIII, Cloverdale School, P C. Routley, 173.

The finalists for the School Trustees Challenge Shield for Classes 12, 13 and 14 were as follows: Class 12, Grade III, Oaklands School, Miss Beall, 173; Class 13, Grade IV, Quadra School, Miss T. Gilliland, 171; Class 14, Grade V, Boys' Central School, Miss Elliott, 172.

ADVICE TO TEACHERS

Apropos of this most interesting contest Sir Hugh Roberton made some very reassuring remarks for the benefit of any teachers who might have felt discouraged by the performances of their classes. After long experience as a festival adjudicator and choir leader he had found that some of the best trainers and conductors of children's choirs had emerged from the ranks of the general teachers rather than from the ranks of specially trained supervisors of music.

"I come from a city of over a million people, the city of Glasgow, where we have made all our recent appointments for musical supervisors from the ordinary class teacher who has learned her business on the festival platform. And we have most astonishingly successful results from this system. There is no reason why you should not develop, by just such experience as you are gaining here, the very same kind of genius for the conducting of children's choirs," he said.

CRITICIZES SELECTION

"A wretched, miserable, droning piece of mush," he said in passing judgment on the second of the test pieces set for Class 15 contest. He referred in this to Challinor's "Cuckoo Time,"—"a poor piece, and the children seemed to know it."

On the other hand he highly approved of "My Boy Billy," the racy singing of which by the Boys' Central choir had evidently thrown the balance in their favor and won for them the Class 14 contest. "A jolly selection," Sir Hugh declared.

"Inclined to be a caricature!" he said by way of criticism of their singing of this, "but a thousand, a million times better to be a caricature than to be a spiritless and meaningless performance."

CHILDREN'S IMAGINATION

Still pursuing the principle that children have—or should have—wealth of imagination sufficient to make something interesting of any song which they could understand, Sir Hugh begged the teachers to work always toward the release of the child's singing energies, such shaping as took place being designed toward the best use of this energy to express the thing which the child saw.

"With reference to the trio piece, "Song of Fairies," (Class 52), Sir Hugh again reasoned with the children that they surely must believe in these beings of the imagination. They believed in lots of things which they could not see or touch. They could not, for instance, touch a song. Yet they believed in it. They might not be able to touch the fairies, but was this any reason for not believing in them?

The day's results follow:

The delegates also elected six international trustees, nominated on the convention floor yesterday. They are Carl E. Endicott, Huntington, Ind.; Herbert A. Moore, Duboise, Pa.; Edmond C. Van Diest, Colorado Springs, Colo.; David H. Edington, Mobile, Ala.; H. S. Hatfield, Oklahoma City, and Russell S. Perkinson, Petersburg, Va.

CARIBOO HIGHWAY TO BE LECTURE TOPIC

Mrs. Mary Spencer Palmer, whose husband, Lieut. Spencer Palmer, Royal Engineers, helped to build the Cariboo Highway, is to be present at the lecture to be given by John Hosie, provincial archivist, at the New Thought Hall on Friday evening this week. Those who enjoy stories of real adventure are looking forward to hearing Mrs. Palmer tell of her husband's miraculous escape from Indians in the early sixties. Mr. Hosie is speaking on "The Cariboo Highway" and has many beautiful lantern slides of this romantic chapter in the history of British Columbia. The affair is under the auspices of the Craigflower School committee and the proceeds are to provide entertainment for the pioneers of the Old Craigflower School at a reunion there in June. The lecture will commence at 8 o'clock and the public is cordially invited.

CONTACT IN ARCTIC WOULD BE DIFFICULT

OSLO, May 7 (AP).—Harold U. Sverdrup, Norwegian scientist, who was chief of Amundsen's Arctic expedition in 1922, said yesterday he believed it would be very difficult to establish communication between the Wilkins' expedition submarine and the Graf Zeppelin in the Arctic region.

Sverdrup, who may join the expedition, said July would be far from the favorable month for the Zeppelin to attempt a polar flight as fog and clouds would prevail over the Polar seas and there would be danger the ship would become covered with ice.

SAANICH GIVES AID TO SCOUTS

Council Secures Lease of Property to Provide Quarters for the Boys

To provide suitable quarters for the North Quadra Troop and Pack, Boy Scouts' Association, a lease has been secured of a property situated on Glasgow Avenue. This contribution has been made by the Saanich Council in recognition of the splendid work being done by this organization in the training of the youth of the district.

The construction of a building is to be started immediately and will be ready for occupancy in the course of the next few weeks. The lumber necessary is being furnished at cost, and the labor is being found by a public-spirited association of the city.

In these circumstances the total expenditure will not be substantial. Funds, however, are necessary, and at a meeting of the executive council, held last Wednesday evening at the home of Robert Dunn, 3329 Quadra Street, ways and means of providing the same were considered. There were present, Mr. F. G. Crowhurst, president; Mesdames Entwistle and Mobis, Miss Sherwood, Messrs. Miller, Sherwood and Dunn.

TO SECURE CHARTER

It was decided to proceed forthwith with the securing of a charter, and the announcement that the council had favorably reported upon the request for a site for the building was received appreciatively. In respect of the building, it was agreed that no further time should be lost in proceeding with its construction. Messrs. Crowhurst and Miller were appointed a committee with power to act, and it is understood that the lumber has been ordered and the preparations made to get the building under way.

Reports were received of the financial and social success of a card party held for the purpose of raising funds for the Scouts' new home; also as to the success of a rummage sale conducted for the same purpose. In this connection, votes of thanks were tendered those responsible for the arrangement of the details, special mention being made of the activity of Mrs. Entwistle and Mrs. Humber.

Parents of boys who are members of the Cub Pack and the Troop are being asked to contribute, as far as they conveniently can, in order that there may be no difficulty in providing for the financing of the programme decided upon. The committee expressed the hope that the co-operation of all interested would be available to assure that the boys may be placed in their new headquarters with the least possible delay.

Ask for Preference

That nonpensioned ex-service men, when applying for a Government position or otherwise, should be given preference over men receiving substantial pensions, is the subject of letters sent yesterday by the secretary of the Nonpensioners of the Great War Welfare Association to Premier R. B. Bennett, at Ottawa; Dr. S. F. Tolmie, Premier of British Columbia, and D. B. Plunkett, M.P. for Victoria.

Why cutting does not remove the cause?

Do you know the cause of Piles is internal?

That there is congestion of blood in the lower bowel—the veins flabby, the parts almost dead?

Do you know that there is a harmless internal remedy for itching, bleeding or protruding piles discovered by Dr. Leonhardt and known as HEM-ROID that is guaranteed?

HEM-ROID banishes piles by removing the cause. It stimulates the circulation in the lower bowel—drives out the thick impure blood, heals and restores the affected parts. This remedy has an almost unbelievable record for sure, safe and lasting relief to thousands of pile sufferers.

Don't waste time on external remedies or think of an operation until you have tried a bottle of HEM-ROID tablets. MacFarlane and Vancouver Drug Stores guarantee money back if they do not end Piles in any form. (Advt.)

MORE STUDENTS ADDED TO LIST

Additional Names in Revised Results of University of B.C. Examinations

An unofficial revision of the list of results of the academic work and examinations of the University of British Columbia, determined by the faculty and senate, gives the names of the following additional Victoria students, whose names were not included in the previous lists published:

B.A. WITH HONORS

Joan E. Edwards, second-class honors in mathematics; Ernest R. M. Yerburgh, second-class honors in Greek and Latin.

B.A. IN PASS COURSE

Margaret O. Muirhead, H. Isabel Routledge, William P. Lawson.

Passed unranked—R. D. Jordan Guy.

THIRD YEAR

Class 2—Mary M. Wallace, Lewis J. Clark, Mabel M. K. Brown.

Pass—William D. McR. Patterson, Dorothy E. Thompson, Nora Scott-Colquhoun, William H. Harvey, E. Lorraine Farquhar.

Passed with supplementals—Dorothy F. Allen (French 3a), Laurence S. Herchmer (Latin 3a), Muriel M. Murray (English 9), Robert C. W. Ward (Greek 1).

SECOND YEAR

Class 2—Harry E. Bowden, Willard E. Ireland, M. Robina Mouat.

Pass—Donald B. Cameron, William Lucas, Carl M. Mouat, Frances M. Latta, C. Sangster and Howard D. Cleveland.

Passed with supplementals—William O. Hudson (geography 5), repeat.

APPLIED SCIENCE

For B.A.Sc. Degree

Forest engineering, class 1—Lorne F. Swannell.

Passed—Charles D. Schultz.

Passed, but conditioned, class 2—William S. B. Latta (civil engineering 7).

Geological engineering, class 2—Robert A. Halet.

Mechanical engineering, class 1—John L. Plant.

Passed—C. William E. Locke.

FOURTH YEAR

Mechanical engineering, class 1—L. M. Nesbitt.

Mining engineering, class 2—Terrence C. Holmes. Conditioned student—Gavin A. Dirom.

THIRD YEAR

Class 2—P. M. Hurley, J. B. Hedley and T. W. Mouat.

Granted supplementals — J. V. Rogers (chemical engineering 4), A. Pike (math. 7, civil engineering 31), P. Symonds (math. 7, C.E. 4, physics 5 and 6).

Conditioned students, with supplementals—T. H. Barbour (math. 7), J. R. A. Maconachie (math. 6 and 7, physics 5).

SECOND YEAR

Class 2—H. V. Gordon Wheeler, W. T. Coventry, R. K. Brown.

Granted supplementals—A. K. G. Blakney (C.E. 30), W. W. Campbell (math. 1, physics 3 and 4 and chem. 2a), Ralph Davis (math 1 and 4, physics 4, chem 2a), R. W. Wellwood (math. 1, physics 3).

NURSING

Second year, conditioned students—Class 2, Margaret B. Moffatt.

First year, partial—Catherine M. Clibborn (passed in Bact. 1 and 2, physics 1, S.S. 4, P.H. zoology 1, anatomy, English 13, S.S. 8).

B.C. FARMERS TO HAVE FAIR YEAR

Surplus Stocks From 1930 Crop Season Are Being Moved Out of Storage

British Columbia this year will enter the new crop season for general farm produce in a more favorable position than for some years previous, it was stated yesterday by J. A. Grant, of the markets branch, Department of Agriculture. Potatoes, onions, apples and other products held in storage are being rapidly reduced, and a slight shortage may occur in some lines before the new season's output comes on the market.

Farmers, it is explained, are now free from the fear that the very large production of last year would carry over, to upset marketing in 1931. A well-balanced production is anticipated this year.

Storage stocks of potatoes have been reduced from over 8,000 tons in January to less than 3,000 tons in April, and these will be sold before the new potato crop reaches the market in volume. Onions are cleaned out of storage, and the last of the pack is in the hands of distributors. Small storage stocks of apples are reported at Victoria and Vancouver, but with three months to go these will be sold, and importation may have to be resorted to, to take care of further demand.

In general, it is reported, 1930 production will be well out of the way before the 1931 crops mature. An open Winter on the Prairies enabled British Columbia to dispose of a larger quantity of apples over the period than had been anticipated.

JAIL BREAKERS ARE SENTENCED

NEW WESTMINSTER, May 7 (CP).—William Williams, charged with escaping from Oakalla Prison, April 24, pleaded guilty in County Court and was sentenced to two months additional to an eighteen-month sentence that he is serving for breaking and entering. Williams, who was working with a gang on the prison property, got only thirty feet outside the prison boundary before he was recaptured.

Ivan Smith, also charged with escaping from Oakalla Prison last September, was given an additional month. Smith escaped from the kitchen of the prison, where he was employed as a trusty. He went to the United States, but returned voluntarily and surrendered to provincial police last month. In view of this the court imposed the lighter sentence

BURNABY TAXPAYERS WILL NOT BEAR COST OF PRIVATE PUPILS

WEST BURNABY, May 7.—Children boarding at "schools" in Burnaby, whose parents do not reside in the municipality, will no longer be educated at the expense of Burnaby taxpayers, the school board decided Wednesday

Trustees referred to a number of pupils who have been attending Burnaby public schools from privately owned "schools" in the district. Several of these, it was stated, are outsiders and affected by a recent amendment to the School Act, under which the municipality is no longer liable for their education.

Secretary W. H Wood was instructed to direct attention of principals of privately owned schools to this legislation.

C.P.R. FINANCES

As in the case with all commercial and financial organizations in times like these the Canadian Pacific Railway Company has been practising economies. The extent of these is indicated by the report made by Mr. E. W. Beatty, the president, at the shareholders' meeting in Montreal on Wednesday. From the standpoint of those shareholders, in order to fully protect their immediate and future interests, the decision of the directors of the company to cut the coming quarterly dividend in half is a move based on sound finance. When the decision is viewed in all its bearings there will be a general realization that it is in line with the sound management that has characterized the fortunes of the C.P.R. It is clearly intimated that the measure is a temporary one. What the dividend rate will be for the full year will be determined on the basis of operations during the coming months.

The eminently strong position which the company occupies was stressed in Mr. Beatty's report. As returns have declined, due to abnormal economic conditions, economies have been effected throughout the system. Despite the depression there was an increase of $32,582,433 in the assets of the company in 1930, bringing the total of these to $1,371,969,695. The policy that has been pursued in the past ten years, with particular relation to reconstruction after the war period, has placed the company on such a basis that, to quote Mr. Beatty, "it is now in a position to profit most quickly by a return to more normal conditions." In this respect, too, Mr. Beatty says: "I am hopeful, and even confident, that conditions in Canada will gradually improve. If they do our earnings will promptly reflect the improvement."

DAIRY FARMING

The point to be borne in mind in considering the future of dairy farming in the Dominion is that the prospects are brighter than they have been for some time past. For five years New Zealand imports of butter occupied a dominating position in the home market. That condition has been ended. Now the Canadian farmer has his home market. On all sides advice is being tendered to develop mixed farming. It is sound and sensible advice, particularly in view of the situation in the wheat industry. It should be borne in mind that the crux of mixed farming is the dairy cow. Farmers generally, and particularly those engaged in the dairying industry, are willing to take their chance on the prices they can obtain, provided that they can retain the home market for their products.

Those who are criticizing the policy of the Federal Government in restricting butter imports must remember that the effects on the home industry cannot become apparent at once. It is a question of adjustment to the new conditions, and one of overcoming the handicaps that have prevailed. The fact that Canada has imported butter to such a large extent has had a far-reaching effect on all the subsidiary industries. When the dairying interests of the Dominion are able to readjust their outlook, and they are doing it rapidly, there will again be a surplus of butter produced in the country and this will mean prosperous farming. The industry will find its true economic level over a period of years. This country can well afford, in the interests of its future agricultural progress, to concentrate on building up dairy herds. The industry involved has most important bearings on farming development as a whole.

SHIFTING BOUNDARIES

A comparison of the map of Europe today with that of fifty years ago illustrates the shifting of national boundaries that has gone on from century to century and that must constantly be borne in mind if history is to be read intelligently. The Ottoman Empire and the Austrian Empire have disappeared; Poland and the Baltic States have again emerged above the waves of time. New realms with strange-sounding names have arisen, Czechoslovakia and Jugoslavia.

The changes in two thousand years are proportionately greater. The Germany of Tacitus, of the Arminius who annihilated Roman legions, was not the Germany of our time. The Saxons whom Arminius led, some of whose descendants founded the Wessex of King Alfred, did not come from the territory inhabited by the Saxons of today, nor were they of identical racial origin. The Italy invaded by Hannibal did not include what is now the wealthiest, most progressive part of the Italy of Mussolini—the region north of the peninsula, then known as Cisalpine Gaul. The England of Egbert did not include Cornwall, but the Scotland of that time included the North of Ireland.

The Turkish Empire once contained within its boundaries not only Greece, Bulgaria, Rumania and Serbia, but also Hungary, the Crimea and adjacent territory in Russia. The kings of France long contended with a Burgundy whose rulers held sway over the Netherlands, Luxembourg, Lorraine, Alsace and part of France east of the Rhone. The realm of Sweden at one time included Finland, the Baltic States and part of what is now Prussia.

Not only are territorial names now applied to areas different from those which first bore them, but names which once designated one racial stock now designate another. The group of kindred peoples known to Caesar as Germans inhabited only the western strip of the Germany of today. They were almost purely Nordic, long skulled, tall and fair. German invasions later subdued Slavic tribes in the eastern half of modern Germany and Alpine tribes in Bavaria and Saxony. These Slavic and Alpine tribes, broad skulled and shorter in stature, to whom the conquering Germans gave their language, were among the forefathers of perhaps the majority of the inhabitants of that part of Germany of our time, as is indicated by the prevalence there of broad skulled, non-Nordic anatomical types.

The peninsula of Jutland, now the mainland of Denmark, was a part of Caesar's Germany. In Jutland lived the Jutes and the English. Southwest of them, along the shore of the North Sea, lived the Saxons. Large numbers of all three crossed to Great Britain and took possession of the eastern and southern lowlands. The English finally gave their name to the descendants of the Saxons and Jutes and also to descendants of Normans, Danes and Celts. Those of the English and Danes, however, who settled along the Firth of Forth were later included in the kingdom of Scotland and took the Scottish name.

Gothic kingdoms successively appeared on parts of the map widely remote from each other. History finds the Goths first inhabiting the southeast of Sweden and the territory lying along the eastern border of Caesar's Germany. Thence they migrated, almost en masse. They founded kingdoms successively in the western and southern part of what is now Russia, in the Balkans, in Jugoslavia, in Northern Italy, and finally in Southwestern France, Spain, Morocco, Tunis and Algeria. One of the Swedish islands is still known as Gothland, as is also a province on the Swedish mainland.

SIXTY YEARS OF SERVICE

In any occupation of life a record of sixty years of service, which has been marked by continuous advancement, is memorable. That is the record of Mr. W. D. Robb, the retiring vice-president of the Canadian National Railways. His has been honorable and efficient service throughout, beginning at the age of fourteen with an apprenticeship at the railway works at Radlow Cove. When twenty-six years of age Mr. Robb was night locomotive foreman in the Montreal shops; in 1897 master mechanic of the motive power department at Toronto; four years later acting superintendent of motive power, and in 1917 vice-president in charge of motive power and car departments. The following year he became operating vice-president of the system, with the executive power of general manager added in 1922, and a year later vice-president of the Canadian National Railways with jurisdiction over telegraphs, agriculture, lands, colonization and development, insurance, radio, pensions and relief departments of the company.

Mr. Robb's executive ability has been a matter of constant development through his long years of service. His consistent promotion is evidence of how he won the growing confidence of his employers in whatever position he occupied. Long after most men in railway work have retired his services remained in enthusiastic requisition. As a consequence of his long and prominent career of achievement his record remains as a part of the railway development of the Dominion, and it has been a part of which the system with which he has been connected has every reason to be proud. His fellow citizens, who know of his enviable record and what he accomplished in the interests of the country of his birth, will wish him long life and happiness in his retirement. Such a career as his is an inspiration to all who have the incentive to rise to posts of the highest responsibility from the humblest beginnings.

THE GODS OF OLD

The wise men say the gods of old are dead.,
Nor more by mortal eyes can they be seen;
Their story done, their glory ever fled,
Nor e'en their memories green.

But you and I do not believe this tale,
That there is end to all their love and mirth;
That they no longer haunt each hill and dale
Of this old earth.

For we have heard the merry pipes of Pan
Sound shrilling where the startled shepherd trod,
And we have seen his footprints where he ran,
Goat-footed god!

Still o'er the world, and o'er the heavens divine,
Venus and Mars their sceptres strongly sway;
The Cloud-Compelling Jove, the Muses Nine,
All reign today.

Tell us no more of your tale of sad import,
That all the gods we love are dead as stone;
That the Olympian heights where was their court,
Are tenantless and lone;

For we have heard the merry pipes of Pan
Sound and re-echo through the dark pine grove;
And Mars and Venus rule the heart of man
In war and love.

Who speaks the truth stabs falsehood to the heart.
—James Russell Lowell.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

So what is the use of repining,
For where there's a will there's a way.
Tomorrow the sun may be shining,
Although it is cloudy today.
—An old song.

After reading the paper these mornings we feel almost as cheerful as we used to feel after reading the lamentations of that prophet of gloom, Jeremiah. There are multitudes of prophets these days, and they are nearly all Jeremiahs. If we were to give credence to all the predictions of the prophets of gloom, what a place of hopelessness and desolation this normally cheerful world would be. There does not seem to be a person of eminence in any of the avenues of life who has not donned the mantle of the prophet, and the garment is of sable material, hemmed with crape. Literary men, scientists, industrialists, commercialists, even the alleged horned-handed sons of toil, are all spinning yarns of woe. They all tell us in accents of distress that this poor old world is doomed—provided we do not do what they tell us we should do.

* * *

Sir Philip Gibbs, who of course always was a somewhat pessimistic soul, tells us that the world is doomed unless all the people of the nations learn to love one another. The course of true love is a matter of proverb. It never did and never will run smooth. Love, like happiness, is a condition of the mind. Individuals cannot be compelled to love one another. Neither can the masses of the people in all the nations be persuaded, much less compelled, to love one another. There are certain conditions precedent to the establishment of even tolerable personal or national relations. There seems to be a natural gulf fixed between certain persons and certain nations. Experience has demonstrated that the surest way to establish agreeable relations between nations, as between individuals, is for both nations and individuals to attend strictly to their own business and avoid interference with the business of other nations and other individuals. If the world be doomed unless all the people in the world can be talked into or preached into loving one another, then we fear the case of this troubled world is hopeless.

* * *

The President of the United States, who also has donned the robes of the prophet of gloom, has told us that there is but one ray of hope left for this unfortunate world. Mr. Hoover, however, is not a morbid sentimentalist like Sir Phillip Gibbs. He prophesies from the pinnacle on the wall of a materialist. He says the world is doomed unless it disarms.

* * *

He says the present business depression is due to armaments—armaments in Europe, of course, not in America. He declares the people of Europe are spending so much money in creating and maintaining armaments that they have no money left to buy the things necessary to a full life, such things, we assume, as the products of the farms and the factories of the United States. The charge against the nations of Europe of course does not lie against the one nation which has no cause of possible quarrel with any other nation.

* * *

Then there are gloomy prophets of economics as well as gloomy prophets of literature and of politics. Sir George Paish attributes all the business troubles of the world to tariffs and national debts. Mr. Hoover cannot see the connection between the two evils. The British economist wants all tariffs to be swept away and all national debts cancelled. It would be almost as easy to save the world by the Gibbs method, by compelling all the people to love one another, as it would be to avert the crack of business doom by adopting the Paish method. Not while the United States Congress endures will tariffs be abolished, and not while the same Congress is in its normal state of mind will national debts be cancelled.

* * *

We also have raised a fine crop of prophets of gloom in Canada, a most prolific crop in Western Canada. If the grain crop of the West has fallen short of the expectations of the past, the political crop has surpassed all expectations of the present. And if there is one thing we do not lack in Canada, that thing is an abundant yield of politicians. The lamentations of Jeremiah upon the walls of Jerusalem were songs of thanksgiving compared with the speeches of our Western political prophets within the walls of Parliament at Ottawa. The voice of the West, which used to be so cheerful, has become a wail of woe. And of course the loudest voice in the chorus of lamentation is that of Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King. That hypocritical voice, raised not in lamentation for the woes of the West, but for the loss of office, and in the hope of capitalizing the misfortunes of the country for the benefit of a political party, is the most deplorable feature of an unfortunate situation.

* * *

It would be a splendid thing for the world, and for this part of the world which has felt the depression least of all, if all the prophets of gloom could be muzzled or gagged and the thoughts of the people diverted from the obvious mistakes of the past to the equally obvious possibilities of the future. We have encountered business depressions before, but we have successfully, even triumphantly, met them and conquered them, and we shall do the same thing again.

HER THOUGHTS AND DEEDS

Her life is like
A garden plot,
With sun-drenched lawn,
With fern-filled grot;
When rains fall there
They only bring
New strength to feed
The ranks of Spring.
Now flecked with shade,
Now brimmed with sun,
Her happy round
Of days is run,
And all who pass
By that bright place
Are blessed and cheered
Through her glad grace.
Her life is like
A garden's bowers;
Her thoughts and deeds,
They are the flowers!

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, measured from the average level of low water.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Esquimalt drydock at any tide, add 18.9 feet to the height of high water as above given.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Songhees drydock add 30 feet to the height of high water as above given.

"Well, not exactly. But I've taken it apart to see how it didn't work."

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily British Colonist of May 8, 1881)

The steamer Pilot came in yesterday morning from the West Coast, where she had been on a cruise as far as Clayoquot Sound. Sealing this season, as have made expenses or nearly so. The schooners Diamond and Juanita have been the most successful in the whole fleet, and their catches have been small. There is no news of interest from either Barkley or Clayoquot. Weather was very disagreeable during nearly the whole trip.

The Western Union Company is erecting a new telegraph line from Seattle to the boundary. New posts are being put in and new wires strung. A new line of double wire is in operation from New Westminster to the boundary. After completion of the Western Union Line, dispatches will be sent and received with the greatest regularity.

The steamer Cassiar will be ready for work early this week. She has been thoroughly refitted in every particular; her carrying capacity, both for passengers and freight, largely increased, and in every way, shape and form improved and adapted to the Fraser River trade. She is certain to secure a fair share of the immense traffic that must pass up the river to the head of navigation.

Great difficulty has been found in placing the large locomotive on board the up-river steamer at New Westminster, the facilities being entirely inadequate. If they would place it on the float the steamer Western Slope would tow it to Yale without difficulty.

SPEAKS ON NORTH LIFE

C. H. French Tells Rotary Club of Conditions Beyond Timber Line

A most interesting address on the early explorations in North America as they affected what the speaker called "the real North," which was that beyond the timber line, was given by Charles H. French, former head of the Hudson's Bay Company's fur department, before the Rotary Club yesterday at noon. In connection with it he recalled the voyages of Franklin and the various searchers after his ill-starred expedition. The time at his disposal interfered materially with the address of Mr. French, who was able only to touch upon the fringe of the subject matter which he had at his disposal.

The speaker disavowed any part in explorations himself. His knowledge of the subject was gained from travels in connection with his work in certain parts alluded to, and in his connection with men who had been associated with that great north country.

SUBMARINE EXPLORATION

Incidentally he alluded to the proposed expedition by submarine to the North Pole. In the Arctic ice fields the contraction due to extreme cold had the effect, Mr. French said, of raising a mountain of ice above the surface about every ten miles. These contractions sent another mountain of ice downwards as well as the one that rose upwards from the surface. These might give trouble in navigation.

An alternative situation was suggested by the speaker, which was that the warmer water below might at seasons leave a smooth lower surface to the ice fields.

Telling of Franklin's loss, Mr. French showed by a map of the error made by the explorer in taking a course which carried him into an ice field off Victoria Island. A passage which lay east of that and which was open water each Summer would have enabled the explorer to have got safely around.

NOT BECOMING FEWER

In answer to a question the speaker said that the Eskimos were not becoming fewer. There was abundance of food found in the North. The natives slaughtered caribou at the seasons when they were available. The meat was kept in holes in the frozen ground which constituted cold storage for them. Then ptarmigan, geese and ducks were available at certain seasons in great quantities. Victoria Island was in reality a great swamp, which bear and other predatory animals could not succeed well in traversing in pursuit of the waterfowl which frequented it.

The natives also caught their fish by erecting stone dams which allowed the fish to become imprisoned when the tide went out.

In the taking of fur seals, the natives moved as these animals became scarce. With a dog they were able to find the breathing holes in the ice where the seal came up. Lying in wait for the seal to come, his presence being manifested by his pushing up the ivory rod left in the snow in the hole, the hunter speared the seal, holding it in place until the hole was enlarged so as to allow for the taking of the prisoned animal through it onto the ice.

Travel in the country was best accomplished by those who were accustomed to the country and who were able to live on the land as they progressed to a very large extent. This had been made evident by the expeditions carried out by Hudson's Bay Company parties, extending over long periods, sometimes three years, as compared with the attempts made by such men as Franklin, who were not accustomed to the needs of the place.

CHAMBER TO GET INFORMATION AS TO AIRPORTS

Members of the Chamber of Commerce will have the opportunity on Monday of gaining information with respect to aviation airports. Harold Crary, of Chicago, who is now publicity director and advertising manager for the Boeing Airplane Company and allied interests, will speak at the luncheon of the tourist trade group.

At the meeting which will be held in the dining-room of the chamber at 12:15, the tourist trade group will also elect its new executive for the year.

Mr. Crary is exceptionally well versed in all matters pertaining to the development of aviation and the necessity for modern airports. He has recently returned to the Pacific Coast after participating in the International Airplane Exposition at Detroit.

Having made a concentrated study of all air transportation lines in the United States, and the important bearing which these services have upon the development of present-day commerce, Mr. Crary will relate how every community would benefit through the possession of an up-to-date airport.

What Today Means

"TAURUS"

If May 8th is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., and from 3 p.m. to 5:45 p.m. The danger hours are from 9 a.m. to 10:50 a.m., from 1:30 p.m. to 2:45 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

The planetary aspects of May 8th indicate a day of activity during which much that is worth while can be accomplished. It is a propitious occasion for the initiation of new enterprise, or for lopping off dead lumber, and preparing for future uncluttered growth and development.

A child born on this May 8th promises to be sturdy in constitution and in character. It will possess high courage and will always be stronger in attack than in defence. It will not be stubborn, but, once it has made up its mind, only very urgent reasons will ever induce it to change.

Born on May 8th, you are too fond of your ease and comfort to ever become an outstanding success, although you are endowed by nature with many traits that would enable you to achieve much. You, however, lack that fighting spirit which always distinguishes those who go ahead. You will not make sacrifices in order to secure a goal. You would rather lose and be comfortable, than win and abate one iota of your ease.

Your personality is very attractive. You shine as a conversationalist, and you are a good storyteller. You read a good deal, principally fiction, but generally look at the last chapter to see if it ends happily. If it fails to do so, you are rather disposed to "chuck it." Your friends are numerous, but your close intimates are few. Many like you, while only few, very few, love you. Your mind is a keen one. Your conceptions are abortive, as you are rarely willing to go through the period of travail in order to bring them to birth.

The opposite sex is attracted to you, and you yourself are not immune to its charms. You will experience a variety of infatuations—as unsatisfying as inconstant—and only in later years will you meet your real mate—the one destined to take you out of yourself, and help you to make of your life what the Stars intended it should be.

King Carol's Hand-Picked Ticket Will Probably Be Elected in Rumanian Test

By JOHN GUNTHER
(Copyright, 1931, by The Chicago Daily News Foreign Service)

BUCHAREST, May 7.—The election campaign to determine Rumania's future for a good many years, has been under way since the return of King Carol and his Premier, Professor Nicolas Jorga, to Bucharest from their May Day week-end at Temesvar. Professor Jorga is campaigning with his strictly non-parliamentary Cabinet, dubbed the "party of national union."

Professor Jorga, who last week may or may not have gained personal popularity by banning rouge and short skirts on girls in the Premier's office, today continued in the path of these reforms by ordering a local official of Temesvar, in peremptory tones, to get rid of his $10,000 Lincoln automobile which he has been using in performing his official duties. Professor Jorga, in rebuking him, emphasized the imperative need of drastic economies.

THREE POSSIBILITIES

The electoral campaign will last a month and a new Parliament will be summoned June 15. Three possibilities are envisaged.

1. Victory for Julius Maniu and the National Peasants' Party, who, having ruled Rumania for two years, find themselves with sudden opposition.

Their chances are less good today. The popularity of Mr. Maniu has suffered gravely because of his inability to end administrative corruption and the economic crisis. Even in his Transylvania strongholds his prestige is said to be waning.

2. Victory for Ion G. Duca and the Liberals.

DOESN'T LIKE LIBERALS

They too are expected to take the field against the Jorga Government, but not to unite with the National Peasants. King Carol does not like the Liberals because the old Liberal leader, Ventila Bratianu, was the man who hounded him from the country. The Liberals may, however, try to climb on the Jorga band wagon, if a Jorga landslide seems likely.

3. Victory for the present Jorga Government, that is, for King Carol's hand-picked ticket.

This now seems surer, partly because the opposition is divided, partly because the Government often helps itself to office, and partly because of King Carol's genuine popularity and the dissatisfaction of the people with Parliament. King Carol's present idea is to rule behind a strictly parliamentary facade.

MRS. M. A. CAMSUSA DIED YESTERDAY

Well-Known Pioneer of Victoria Passes at Seventy-Three Years of Age

Victoria lost another of its pioneers yesterday when there passed away, at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, Mrs. Margaret Alice Camsusa, who had resided here for fifty years. Mrs. Camsusa, who was seventy-three years of age, was born in France and came here in her early life. She was well known throughout the city and the surrounding districts, and her passing will be mourned by a large circle of friends.

She is survived by Miss Marie Rose Camsusa; two sons, Louis and Joseph, of Victoria; and one sister, Mrs. E. A. McQuade, also of Victoria.

The remains are reposing at Hayward's Chapel, where the funeral will take place at 8:45 o'clock tomorrow morning. Church services will be held at Our Lady of Lourdes Church at the Willows, and interment will be made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

SPENT CHILLY NIGHT ON SENANUS ISLAND

Marooned on Senanus Island, in Saanich Arm, from early Wednesday evening until Thursday noon, W. Gardiner, of Wilkinson Road, and J. Thompson, Bamberton, spent a chilly night, after a gasoline launch in which they were crossing the Arm broke down. The two men were using an eighteen-foot launch owned by C. Sluggett, of Bamberton, and had almost reached the ferry wharf at Mill Bay when the engine went dead. They effected a landing at the lonely little island, and yesterday succeeded in attracting attention to their plight. Constable A. G. Carmichael, of the provincial police, found both men unharmed for their experience, though with sharpened appetites.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

THE CAUSE OF SLEEP IS UNKNOWN

I often wonder who will be the first research man to find out the real cause of sleep; whether it will be discovered by an old or young investigator; what nationality he will be; what experiments he will use in proving it.

Sleep is a wonderful work of Nature that has been investigated for hundreds of years, and yet we seem no nearer the knowledge of the cause of sleep than were our forefathers.

Not that there hasn't been many theories, and these theories looked very sound for a while until some later investigator was able to show that each in turn was not the cause of sleep.

One of these theories as to the cause of sleep was that in our waking hours the body manufactured a certain substance, which, when it got to a certain amount, acted on the nervous system just as a drug, and put the brain to sleep.

Another theory was that during our waking hours the nerve units were in contact with one another, thus keeping us conscious or awake, but during sleep the nerve units curled up in themselves and were not in contact with one another, separated as electric wires would be, and we became unconscious or asleep.

Still another theory and one held by many until recently, was that the heart did not send as much blood up to the brain, but sent it to the surface of the body, and it was this lessening of the blood supply to the brain that caused unconsciousness or sleep.

However, Dr. A. Grollman, Johns Hopkins University, has been able to show that the supply of blood to the brain, the blood pressure, the pulse rate and the breathing, during sleep, are not any lower than if the individual is awake, providing that he is lying perfectly quiet, no digestion going on, and his mind calm and free from thought of any kind.

Now, this is interesting as it tends to disprove various theories, but it doesn't give us in itself the real cause of sleep.

However, we do know that Nature shows us that we must have it, and it is as important and necessary as food and fresh air, and the strongest will cannot battle it very long.

In the meantime, as mentioned before, it is gratifying to know that the body processes, heart beat, breathing rate, blood pressure, circulation of the blood—all the processes in fact—slow down about 25 per cent if we are willing to lie quietly in bed even if we do not sleep. This knowledge should help us to get off to sleep.

EVIDENCE IS GIVEN FROM HOSPITAL BED

A charge of assault against Pete Carlsen was laid yesterday morning by Leo Sester from his bed in the Jubilee Hospital, where he is suffering from a broken hip which, it is alleged, he sustained during a scuffle with the accused outside his rooms. After hearing the evidence from the bedside, Magistrate George Jay adjourned the case until tomorrow.

BIDS CALLED ON PROVINCIAL WORK

Contract for Supply of Bituminous Materials, and Other Tenders Are Invited

Four sets of tenders will be called within the next ten days by the Provincial Government for materials and construction on public works, it was stated yesterday at the Department of Public Works.

Semi-detached houses on the Government's property, Hornby Street, Vancouver, are the subject of repair tenders, to be opened on May 11.

On May 14 the Province will examine bids for the supply of bituminous surfacing materials needed generally for road maintenance throughout British Columbia, this being the outstanding contract of the series.

Two sets of bids will be opened on May 18, one for the construction of a highway bridge at Coquitlam, in the Dewdney district, and the other for a school building at Irvine's Landing, Jervis Inlet.

He is mourned by one son, Murray Emerson, of Port Huron, Mich.; one daughter, Mrs. Don Acker, of Portland, Oregon, and one brother, Robert, of Victor Street, Victoria. The remains are resting at McCall Bros.' Funeral Home, pending funeral arrangements.

COMPLIMENTED CITY MUSICIAN

Sir Hugh Roberton and Other Adjudicators Were Guests at Rotary Luncheon

At the Rotarian luncheon, yesterday, a compliment was paid to Major Harry Watts by Sir Hugh Roberton. The latter said, in referring to what Mr. Watts had done in various parts of Canada in a musical way that he had helped materially in building up the country. Were it not for such work as this, the country might have been content to develop along material lines alone.

With the other members of the body of adjudicators at the Musical Festival, Sir Hugh was a guest at the luncheon of the Rotary Club, yesterday. With him were H. Plunkett Greene, Harold Samuel, Franck Eicheniaub, Mrs. Jean Campbell and Miss Genieve Taylor.

Speaking on behalf of the guests, Sir Hugh Roberton again paid a high tribute to the festival held in Winnipeg, which he described as evidencing the finest singing heard in the British Empire. He stressed the importance of music in the life of a people, giving, as it did, a fullness and richness to life.

SOURCE OF HOAX CALLS IS FOUND

Soviet Government Spends Thousands to Trace Mysterious Signals of Distress

By JUNIUS B. WOOD
(Copyright, 1931, by The Chicago Daily News Foreign Service)

MOSCOW, May 7.—More than three weeks of excitement in the Soviet Union, as a result of mysterious radio SOS. signals, have given way to calm with an announcement that it was all a hoax, as many had anticipated.

After searching everywhere, from the tops of mountains in the Caucasus to the Arctic Ocean, the fishing steamer Pobeda, supposedly icebound near Novayazemlaya, was picked up as the source of the calls. The icebreaker Malygin steamed from Archangel to Murmansk; an airplane flew from Leningrad to Murmansk; big radio stations and thousands of little amateurs started talking with the hidden joker. It is now settled that the Pobeda was off Murmansk, placidly fishing, with everybody aboard in good health.

The Archangel newspaper, Severea Pravda, says that the flurry cost the Government $100,000 and hundreds of citizens the loss of many nights' sleep, while the Murmansk postoffice handled 386 telegrams of inquiry in a single day.

"It will be a lesson to us," the newspaper says, "as the man said when he was about to be hanged."

Young eyes sparkle when they see these Puffed Grains

Crunchy... Delicious

Children love Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice because extra crisp and good in the new Seal-Krisp package.

YOUNGSTERS just adore these crunchy, toasty morsels of wheat and rice. A recent investigation shows that, given their choice, children always put Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice first on their list of favourite cereals.

And Puffed Grains are as nourishing as they are delicious. Serve direct from the package with milk or cream, or with fruit, fresh or cooked. Easily digested, thus quickly turned into energy and growth.

The new Seal-Krisp package and the special process of "heat sealing" keep Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice as dry and crisp as when shot from guns. More than ever an appeal to appetites hard to please.

Today, order Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice in the new Seal-Krisp Package—get both for variety.

VIOLIN WORK IS PRAISED

Festival Adjudicator Says Standard Has Advanced Considerably in Decade

"It is quite refreshing to hear the violin played so well as it has been tonight. The standard of violin playing in your country and ours has advanced considerably in the last ten years. It all shows, I think, that teaching the violin in the schools is having a good effect," declared Prof. Franck Eichenlaub, adjudicator of the violin classes, in announcing the results of the exceedingly interesting Class 80 competition for seniors at the evening session of the Musical Festival yesterday.

This was not the only encouraging comment in the course of a programme which offered sufficient exceptionally fine musical material to make a concert such as one in the ordinary course of events would have to pay handsomely to hear. Thrown in with it was some of the more average festival material and the sometimes lengthy analyses of the adjudicators, so that it was close upon midnight when the session came to an end.

TROPHIES AWARDED

Some of the festival's important trophies were awarded in the course of the evening. The Kiwanis Club Challenge Shield found a new owner within a few moments of the termination of the proceedings, when Sir Hugh Roberton declared the Emmanuel Baptist Church choir the winner of the Class 3 competition for church choirs and choral societies. Conducted by Fred Parfitt, they secured 168 marks, their competitor, St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church choir, falling two points behind. This trophy has been in the possession of Centennial Church choir for the past year.

An unfortunate feature of the present festival was re-emphasized last night when four important competitions were found to have only one entry each. The Seattle instrumental trio, which carried away the Kola Levienne Cup offered in Class 97, was of the first order and took one of the highest marks awarded during the festival when it was awarded 90. Mildred Johnson (Vancouver) had no rivals for the British Columbia Telephone Company's gold medal in Class 94 for violoncello solo. This was very fine playing also.

The violinists who appeared in Class 80, senior, which moved Prof. Eichenblaub to refer to the improved standard of violin work heard today, all had some singularly fine quality in their work, lovely timbre being the outstanding characteristic of the winner's. This was Gabriel Brown, of Nanaimo, who secured 164 marks and the Prof. Underwood silver medal; John Henry Pimm came four marks behind; and George Tate six.

St. Louis College choir, alone in the boys' choir class under sixteen years, had no competitors for the W. H. Wilkerson Challenge Shield which they won at the last musical festival here and have held ever since. They received some very complimentary remarks from the adjudicator with their total of 165 for the two selections.

Harold Samuel was less reserved than usual in his compliments to the two boys who played in the finals of Class 30, junior piano solo; Edwin Comber, the winner, received 323 marks with the Marian Heming Silver Medal; and Edwin Bucklin came only two points behind.

OTHER AWARDS

The Jack Smith Silver Medal for girls' pianoforte solo, Class 61, went to Catherine Craig. Harold Beckwith, the festival chairman, also presented her with the B.C. Dramatic School Trophy for highest marks in junior elocution.

Other awards presented last evening included the B.C. Dramatic School senior elocution cup, which went to Fred B. Gillespie, of New Westminster; the Women's Canadian Club Cup for highest marks in the "under thirteen" age in vocal, instrumental, and elocution, this going to Hugh McKinnon, a lad of eight years.

Cloverdale School received the Saanich Athletic Association's cup for highest marks received by Saanich competitors in classes ten to fourteen. P. C. Routley received this.

Miss Marjorie Watson carried off the Burns' Club Gold Medal in Class 39, Scottish folk song.

RAIN VISITS PRAIRIES

WINNIPEG, May 7 (CP).—Rain that Western wheat fields needed badly came in abundance in many sections of the Prairies today—and the end was not yet. Showers were confined today to Saskatchewan and Alberta areas, but tomorrow Manitoba will share in the moisture distribution, according to forecasts of the Meterological Bureau here.

SONS OF CANADA ARRANGING TOUR

Victoria Assembly Plans to Charter Prince Robert for May 25 Trip to Seattle

As no other arrangements have been made to celebrate the May 24 holiday on the Monday following, the Native Sons of Canada agreed, at their meeting last night, to journey to Seattle for the day. It is planned to charter the new Canadian National steamship Prince Robert for the trip, the steamer to leave Victoria at 9 o'clock on Monday morning, May 25, returning at 10 o'clock at night. It is estimated that upwards of 1,500 will be aboard when the ship leaves the Capital City.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the Seattle tour is composed of the following: Reginald Hayward, M.P.P., R. D. MacLachlan, secretary; R. A. Hunt, Arthur Cox, C. McConnell, Jack Bacon, George Hutchinson and H. H. McLeod.

The meeting of the Victoria Assembly last night was in the form of a house-warming party, as the meeting was the first to be held in the assembly's new quarters in the New Thought Temple on Fort Street. Following the regular business, a musical programme was given, and afterwards, dancing and refreshments. Those who contributed to the programme were: Solo, Charles Ozard; piano-accordion, Mrs. Evelyn Holt; solo, Mrs. W. D. Todd; comedy skit, W. D. Todd and George Ingledew; duet, Mrs. W. D. Todd and Charles Ozard. Eric Paver's Capitolians Orchestra provided music for dancing, and Mr. Paver was accompanist for the musical numbers. Reginald Hayward, M.P.P., president of the assembly, was chairman and extended a cordial welcome to the visitors.

PLEAD GUILTY IN SWEEP CASE

Magistrate's Decision on Lottery Charges to Be Given This Morning

Following a plea of guilty in the city police court yesterday morning, C. A. Steele and E. A. Morris Ltd., charged with conducting a sweepstake, contrary to Section 236 of the Criminal Code, will appear today for the magistrate's decision.

Police authorities have under consideration prosecution of individual ticket purchasers in connection with the seizure of 157 sweepstake stubs, it was hinted by C. L. Harrison, city prosecutor, during the hearing.

These sweepstakes, it is understood, are conducted in such a manner that it is possible for a party to purchase tickets for others and legal opinion is that proof of actual purchase may be difficult if wholesale prosecutions are attempted, as stubs showing names of purchasers are not the signatures of the purchaser.

Details of the police visit to the two places and the seizure of the tickets were given by Detective Inspector Jack McLellan.

FAMILIAR TO ALL

Although sweepstakes are contrary to law, everyone was more or less familiar with them, declared W. C. Moresby, K.C., defence counsel, while asking for the imposition of a moderate fine. Practically the whole public throughout Canada indulged in them and no harm was being done; the general opinion, as expressed by the newspapers, was in favor of them, he said.

Continuing, the defence counsel pointed out that it was significant that no prosecutions have been made against persons buying tickets and under the code they are included in the transaction.

"I wonder what the authorities would have to say if such action were taken against the hundreds of thousands who are breaking the law in this regard," he said.

HONEST LOTTERY

Mr. Moresby further pointed out that if the scheme were not against the law, it would be turned into an honest and fair lottery such as the Irish Sweep and the Calcutta and Melbourne Cups, tickets for which are sold throughout Canada.

The question of penalty was a thing for the court to consider, Mr. Harrison said.

Regarding the suggestion of the purchasers of tickets, possibly some cognizance will be taken of that at the present time, Mr. Harrison declared, and it will be considered whether or not all ticket purchasers will be brought into court.

In conclusion, the city prosecutor said that the difficulty lay in the fact that, if one person runs a sweepstake, everybody wants to, and there is no doubt that they are popular.

"This is a broad question and the statute gives me broad discretionary powers," said the magistrate, "and there is also a question whether the persons really responsible are brought to court."

City & District

Assayers' Examinations—Notice of examinations for assayers, to be held at Victoria on May 18, is given in this week's issue of the Provincial Gazette. Particulars may be obtained from D. E. Whittaker, secretary of the board of examiners, at the Assay Office, in this city.

Two Calls—Two small fires, at the C.N.R. wharf at Point Ellice and at the corner of Rock Bay and Bay Streets, where the shingles on the roof took fire, occasioned runs for the city fire department yesterday afternoon. No serious damage resulted in either case.

Take Over Buildings—The new horse show and manufacturers' buildings, now in the course of construction at Willows fair grounds, will be completed before the end of the month. Williams, Trerise & Williams, contractors, will officially hand over the two buildings to the B.C. Agricultural Association on June 1, it is stated by City Building Inspector James Barf.

Oil on Roads—Attention is called by the Department of Public Works to road oiling operations to commence this morning on the Swartz Bay ferry road, and on other roads in the North Saanich area. Asphalt solution will be sprayed on the roads, in the usual treatment given in advance of the tourist season. Motorists are asked to watch out for flags that will be posted near the scene.

Fire Permits Necessary—Permits to burn slash or clear land within half a mile of forest areas, and camp fire permits for all who wish to light picnic fires in the bush, are obligatory now, and may be had from the provincial authorities. Camp fire permits are also issued by sporting goods stores and the provincial police. May 1 is considered the start of the dangerous season in the woods.

Old Age Pensions—Definite understanding as to what the policy of the Federal Government will be in regard to old age pensions will be sought by Premier Tolmie, at Ottawa, it was intimated at the Legislative Buildings yesterday. The annual cost of old age pensions in British Columbia is in the neighborhood of $1,255,000, of which half, under the present arrangement, is paid by the Province. The sum of $627,500 has been placed in the 1931 estimate by the Provincial Government.

Good Canadians Now—Parents of five nations are represented in the recent application of eight young settlers of Mount Cartier, near Revelstoke, in connection with the organized plan of boys and girls poultry clubs, three of which were recently started in the area. The application, made to J. R. Terry, poultry commissioner, came from the children of Ukranian, Czechoslovakian, Polish, Austrian, and Italian parents, now naturalized in Canada. These young citizens, Mr. Terry states, learn readily.

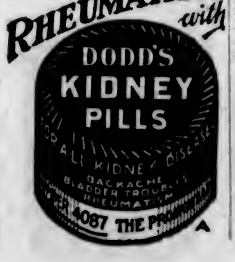
To Address Teachers—Sir Hugh Roberton, who is adjudicating the choral work at the Victoria Musical Festival, has consented to address any of the teachers of the city who wish to hear him tomorrow morning at 10:30 at the First United Church schoolroom. Sir Hugh Roberton is conductor of the famous Orpheus Choir, Glasgow, and five years ago was invited to Winnipeg to act as adjudicator of the choral singing at the Musical Festival there. This year he has again been in Winnipeg for the same purpose, and on two or three occasions since coming here has stated that the school choirs of that city are among the best he has ever heard in any place.

"She says she thinks she could learn to love me."

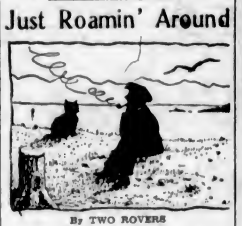
"Yet you do not look happy."

"It's going to be expensive. Had her to the theatre last night, with a little supper after, and the first lesson cost me $25."

Relieve RHEUMATISM with



Just Roamin' Around



By TWO ROVERS

"It's no use talking, Rover, Christophere Columbus was a mighty fine man, and it is not stretching the point at all to add that we owe him a great debt of gratitude. Not only did he discover the future domicile of the 'winners of the late war,' or the 'late winners of the war,' but he made the world a handsome present of what is perhaps its most useful commercial commodity—caoutchouc!"

"What's that, when it's at home?" snapped Rover.

"India rubber, or gutta percha, or getah taban, Rover; it's all the same thing. The world's most useful commodity!"

"How come?" Boss!"

"Well, old top, although few of us can remember our babyhood, about the first thing we are introduced to is a teething ring-rubber, on which we practise biting; later, some of us make a practice of backbiting, but that's nothing to do with this story, except that experts in the art of back-biting are invariably, in origin, from the gutter.

"Then comes the doll period, with its accumulation of rubber dolls and rubber toys; rubber balls arrive on the scene; later, with school days, India rubber, in various shaped cubes, assists us to erase our errors, (could we as easily erase all our errors, there would be so greatt a demand for rubber that the world's supplies would fail). Then we glow with pride and comfort in our first rubber shoes, be they 'sneakers' or 'bluchers,' 'galoshes' or 'overshoes'."

"Master!" interrupted Rover, "don't girls look fine in their rubber bathing caps?"

"Don't be frivolous, Rover!" I said, sternly, reproving his wayward thoughts just when I am trying to give him serious instruction.

"Christopher Columbus saw Carib Indian boys, in Hayti, playing a ball game with balls that had a wonderful bounce; he investigated and discovered where the material came from, and although it was known of old by the peoples of Brazil, West Indies and Mexico, etc., Europe is beholden to Columbus, the discoverer of America, for the very tires that make motoring comfy and convenient.

"In the same way, Rover, we humans have to thank him for our modern and most useful fountain pens, floor tiles, artificial molars and for the various attachments of electrical mechanisms. In fact, there is no walk of life in which in some way or other we are not dependent on rubber for our extra comforts and the practical usefulness of so many necessary things.

"The usefulness of rubber depends on a set of remarkable qualities, the most obvious of which is the capacity it has of being changed in shape to a surprising degree, with immediate decovery to its former shape. Think of a rubber balloon, which can be blown up enormously, and which will, if not bursted by too much hot air, quickly collapse and return to its former state and shape."

"Gosh! Master," then I suppose we owe 'rubber-necks' and 'nippies' and therefore 'nips', to Columbus; what a lot of cheap drinks he is responsible for!"

"That's not the half of it, Rover. Some day I'll tell you where rubber comes from, how it is procured and cured; when I have more time."

CHAPTER HELPS CHILD WELFARE

Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O.D.E., Reviews Month's Activities

At the monthly meeting of the Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter held yesterday afternoon, the delegate to the annual meeting of the Provincial Chapter, Miss Josephine Crease, brought in an interesting, and well compiled report of the meeting, for which she was cordially thanked by the regent, Mrs. R. B. McMicking, who was in the chair. Following the report of the Municipal Chapter meeting, given by Mrs. A. M. Boyd, the chapter voted $1 towards the trophy for the Sea Cadets

Mrs. W. Walker brought in an interesting report of the child welfare committee's work, which covers a special pupil from the Children's Aid Home, from whom a letter of grateful thanks was read. In acknowledging the letter of thanks and congratulations sent to Him by the chapter, D. B. Plunkett expressed the hope that some suitable memorial of the historic value of Clover Point would eventually be erected there, in which the chapter heartily concurred.

A charming letter of thanks was received from Lady Currie acknowledging the chapter's gift of flowers to welcome her on her arrival in Victoria. Miss Ilace Terry was elected as the chapter's delegate to the national annual meeting. Members were reminded of the services being held on May 22, and on May 24 which all are asked to attend.

Women's Institutes of Vancouver Island

ROYAL OAK

The monthly meeting of the Royal Oak Women's Institute will be held in its hall on Thursday, May 14, from 2 until 3 o'clock. At 3 o'clock a joint meeting with the members of the Strawberry Vale Institute will be held, when Mrs. Robson, of Vimy, president of the district board, will address the meeting. It is hoped that all members will avail themselves of the privilege of hearing the district president.

I.O.D.E. NOTES

CHEMAINUS

The monthly meeting of the Porter Chapter was held on Tuesday afternoon in the classroom of the Calvary Baptist Church. There were eleven members present, the regent, Mrs. W. W. Southin presiding. Arrangements were made for Alexandra Rose Day, the meeting deciding to co-operate with the Woman's Auxiliary to the Chemainus General Hospital in tagging, the proceeds to be given to the hospital auxiliary to be used for necessaries for the hospital as required. Mrs. L. G. Hill was appointed convener, and those members of the chapter who will tag are, Mrs. Wyllie, Mrs. A. Porter and Mrs. Gregson.

The treasurer reported that the proceeds from the chapter birthday party amounted to $18.80. Mrs. Gregson gave an excellent account of the annual provincial convention held during last month in Vancouver. Mrs. A. Porter agreed to act as "Echoes" secretary until the end of the year. It was decided to forward a bale of goods to the City Mission in Vancouver on May 15. Mrs. Russel Robinson again kindly allowing the goods to be collected at her home.

The members decided to send a letter of condolence to the Rev. E. M. Cook, who has been forced to take a rest of several months from his labors in the parish, and also to send him a book as a mark of appreciation from the chapter.

Suggestions were made to hold sewing meetings to prepare gifts for Christmas. Mrs. Gregson reported that at the provincial convention she was asked to especially convey to her chapter the news that the two quilts sent from Chemainus for the Peace River district were most acceptable, these quilts being the only two sent. An acknowledgment was read from the Peace River district, thanking the chapter for the sum of $5. It was decided to ask Miss Ilace Terry to represent the chapter as its delegate at the National Chapter meeting.

Cumberland

The Women's Auxiliary to Holy Trinity Anglican Church motored to Merville on Tuesday night to hold the regular monthly meeting at the residence of Mrs. J. Treen, who, prior to her removal to Merville, was a valued member of the auxiliary. Upwards of thirty members made the trip, and following the meeting a jolly social time was held with games and music.

"Yes, ma'am," the old salt confided to the inquisitive lady. "I fell over the side of the ship, and a shark, he came along and grabbed me by the leg."

"Merciful providence" his hearer gasped. "And what did you do?"

"Let 'im have the leg, o' course, ma'am. I never argues with sharks."

Clubs and Societies

Erskine Ladies' Aid

The Ladies' Aid of Erskine Presbyterian Church held a very successful sale of work and home cooking on Wednesday afternoon in the hall adjoining the church, corner of Harriett and Lurline Roads. Rev. D. Thomson, in opening the sale, took occasion to thank the members of the Ladies' Aid for the splendid work they were doing for the church and to say how much their services were appreciated. The following ladies presided at the stalls: Home cooking, Mesdames W. Anderson and Philpotts; plain sewing, Mesdames A. O. Thomson and J. Stewart; tea table, Mrs. H. Scott, president of the Ladies' Aid, and Mrs. Gray, assisted by Misses Isabella Atcheson and Margaret Scott. During the afternoon, Misses Florence and Isabella Atcheson sang and played, and Patsy and Betty Dempsey rendered a duet, and little Betty Dempsey gave a short recitation. The young people had lots of entertainment at the fish pond, which was presided over by Mesdames McKilligan and Dempsey.

Britannia Lodge

Britannia Lodge, L.O.B.A., No. 216, held its regular business meeting at the Orange Hall on Tuesday evening. Sister Nicholas, W.M., presided, with Sister Caldwell in the deputy's chair. There was an unusually large attendance of members and visitors to welcome the R.W. mistress, Sister Burt, of Nanaimo, also R.W. deputy mistress, Sister Lees, of Vancouver. Sister Burt referred to the good work of the L.O.B.A., while Sister Lees gave some very interesting accounts on the work of the Protestant Orphanage. The lodge also welcomed a new member into its gathering. Sister Reed, of Constance Avenue, very kindly offered her home for a sewing bee, to be held on Thursday, May 14. After the meeting refreshments were served.

Knox Ladies' Aid

St. Paul's Scene of Pretty Wedding

An attractive wedding took place on Wednesday evening at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, when Rev. G. F. Cox, assisted by Rev. J. B. Rowell, united in marriage Ruth Caroline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dickson, and Nelson John, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Smith, Cook Street. The church had been prettily decorated for the ceremony by friends of the bride, several floral arches enhancing the decorative scheme and during the service the bridal pair stood beneath an artistically lighted floral bell.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her brother, Mr. Donald Dickson, looked charming in her wedding gown of ivory georgette fashioned on long lines with full flared skirt and with shoulder cape of silk chantilly lace. An embroidered silk net veil was caught to her head in cap effect with a circlet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lillies of the valley.

Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Margaret Dickson, who wore a lovely frock of pale blue georgette with picture hat of fancy lace straw. She carried a sheaf of pink carnations.

The best man was Mr. Cyril Moore and the ushers were Mr. George Dickson, brother of the bride, and Mr. Wilfreid Smith, brother of the bridegroom. Mr. W. Dallimore played the wedding marches on the arrival and departure of the bridal party and during the signing of the register Miss Jean McGowan sang "Beloved It Is Morn."

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at 202 Raynor Avenue, where the bridal couple were assisted in receiving their guests by their mothers, Mrs. Dickson and Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are spending their honeymoon motoring up-Island and on the Mainland and on their return to Victoria, they will reside on Dallas Road. The bride traveled in a frock of Alice blue flat crepe and a fawn travel coat with coon collar annd a hat in harmonizing shade.

Entertains l'Alliance

Mrs. H. M. Archibald, the Uplands, received the members of l'Alliance Francaise and interested friends at a delightful tea party yesterday afternoon at the close of a very enjoyable and successful season. Madame Sanderson-Mongin spoke of the work of the year and voiced the appreciation and thanks of the members to Mrs. Archibald as president, and to Mrs. E. Hamilton Smith, as secretary, for the kindly and gracious arrangements for the pleasure and advancement of students and all who are interested in the French language, its history, art and literature. Mrs. Hamilton Smith told of the success of the bridge for the bursary fund, and of the official and other lectures given during the season. Flowers were presented to Mrs. Archibald and to Madame Sanderson-Mongin. The reception rooms were decorated with masses of cream and mauve lilac; the tea table where Mrs. C. H. Rutherford and Miss Geache presided, was prettily arranged with golden nasturtiums and bluebells. Among the many guests, Mrs. O. M. Jones, a former president for a long period of years, was enthusiastically welcomed.

"At Home" to Friends

Mrs. Alexander McDermot entertained at a delightful "at home" at her residence, "Grace Manor," The Uplands, Wednesday afternoon, attended by a large number of guests. The entrance hall, drawing-room and sunroom was ablaze with huge bowls of tulips in a variety of lovely colors, mingled with Spanish broom and other early Summer flowers, while in the dining-room the table was centred with an artistic arrangement of pink tulips, Japanese iris and maidenhair fern, with tall pink tapers. Mrs. McDermott was assisted in receiving by Mrs. P. H. Elliott and Mrs. H. F. Crowe, and presiding in turn at the tea table were Mrs. W. A. Galliher and Mrs. Duncan Ross, Mrs. D. E. Campbell and Mrs. Walter Scott. Mrs. R. Roberts cut the ices and those assisting in serving the guests included the Misses Anne Michaelis, Mary Campbell, Elaine Galliher, Mary Hunter, Jean and Helen Campbell, Margaret Ross, Dorothy Scott, Mrs. E. M Quade, Mrs. O. Weiler and Mrs. A. Little.

Weddings

DAY—SCOTNEY

St. John's Church was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock, when Miss Mary Doreen Scotney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Scotney, became the bride of Mr. Ernest C. Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Day. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon F. A. P. Chadwick in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. The young couple will make their home in Victoria.

Martial Music for Bridal March

TO the stirring strains of the Royal Scotch bagpipes, Lord Brougham and Vaux and his beautiful bride, the former Valerie French, granddaughter of the late Field Marshal French, leave St. Margaret's Church, London, immediately after the wedding, which was one of the most colorful ceremonies in the British capital this season.

TODAY'S RECIPE

POT Roast with Vegetables —Wipe with damp cloth a three or four-pound roast from chuck or rump, skewer or tie into shape and roll in flour. Sear meat on all sides in a little fat, and place in heavy kettle or braising pan. Pour over meat one cup each sliced carrots, onions, turnips, and diced celery, which have been boiled in salted water until soft and rubbed through a coarse strainer or colander, and three tablespoonfuls dripping or bacon fat. Season to taste, cover tightly and cook in slow oven, or simmer, for about four hours. If liquid in which vegetables were boiled is not sufficient, water may be added as required. Slightly thicken gravy and serve with the meat.

Nanaimo Club Addressed by Miss K. Agnew

NANAIMO, May 7.—Miss K. Agnew, of Victoria, addressed the members of the Women's Canadian Club last evening in the Malaspina Hotel on her trip to Spain, also giving a vivid description of her visits to the play houses, parks, old castles, cathedrals, monasteries at Granada, Madrid and Seville.

At the conclusion of her very interesting address, Miss I. Good presented Miss Agnew with a corsage bouquet of lily of the valley and sweet peas.

Members of the club viewed souvenirs which Miss Agnew had collected in Spain and other parts of the world in which she has traveled.

Mrs. W. F. Drysdale delighted the audience with two solos, "May Morning" and "Wake Up," and was ably accompanied by Mr. Andrew Dunsmore on the piano.

Mrs. T. W. Martindale, the president, was in the chair.

UPSTARTS ADDRESS AMERICAN CLUBS SAYS LADY ASTOR

LONDON, May 7 (AP).—Lady Astor told the American Women's Club today that what surprised her most about women's clubs in America was the kind of people they invite from Europe to address them.

"There have been young men not yet out of college, aggressive in manner and with no sympathy for woman's position, who have been invited to address women's clubs in the United States," she said. "American women are doing nothing to further the cause of women in the world if they continue to invite this kind of upstart."

CHURCH BOYS' SOCIAL

Boys of the Order of the Burning Bush of the Gorge Presbyterian Church, entertained at games and a social the members of the Erskine Presbyterian Church Sunday School Christian Endeavor, on Wednesday night. Quite a pleasant evening was spent, no effort being spared by Charlie Southern, president of the Gorge boys, and Alec McKelligan, president of Erskine Christian Endeavor, to make all the young people thoroughly enjoy themselves.

Mrs. Fitz-Caudle—Ah, me! There was a time when you always called me Daisy; now it's Mrs. Fitz-Caudle, as if I were the merest stranger to you.

Princess Helena Off to Belgrade; Bucharest Agog

BUCHAREST, Rumania, May 7 (AP).—Princess Helena was on her way to Belgrade, capital of Jugo-slavia, today, leaving behind her a wave of speculation concerning her future relations with King Carol.

Her departure was attributed in some quarters to the meeting between King Carol and King Alexander of Jugo-slavia on the Danube several days ago. The fact that Crown Prince Michael still is convalescent from an attack of diphtheria and that she herself was indisposed from caring for him only added to the general mystification.

She left last night with a lady-in-waiting. Former King George of Greece, her brother, took them to the railway station.

I.O.D.E. CHAPTERS ORGANIZED IN WEST

TORONTO, May 7 (CP).—When the national committee of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire met Wednesday, formation of new chapters of the order, one at Edson, Alta., another at Humboldt, Sask., and two in Blenheim, Ont., was reported. The annual meeting is to be held at Halifax the last week of May.

LAKE HILL DANCE

A large number of guests attended the closing dance of this season, held in Lake Hill Community Hall under the auspices of the social committee, on Wednesday evening. Balloon, serpentine and spot dances and other novelties were featured and added to the enjoyment of the guests. The supper tables were attractively arranged with Spring flowers. On Friday, May 15, a whist drive is to be held, under the auspices of the Bowlers' Club. There will be special prizes and refreshments.

Another sign that the depression is passing is that the bread lines are breaking up and reforming at the public golf links.

"I place Palmolive first among soaps" says Mme. Dahlstrand
foremost beauty specialist of Stockholm
"Time can do nothing to a skin that is safeguarded by Palmolive Soap and my special products. But remember that it must be Palmolive Soap, if you want to obtain these results. It cannot be done with just any kind of soap."

Mme. Dahlstrand, Sweden's noted exponent of beauty culture.

Is it not remarkable that the lovely women of Sweden and of almost every other civilized nation find this one method of skin care best?
"MY principle for home treatments, "says Mme. Dahlstrand, "is first of all to keep the skin clean, the most vital condition for beauty, and Palmolive Soap is my valuable assistant in the service of beauty.
"This fine facial soap keeps the surface of the skin well protected." Use it with warm water, then rinse with cold water or ice to prevent sagging of the skin."
The great specialists all over the world agree on the efficiency of Palmolive Soap. Could there possibly be a more authentic recommendation than the approval of 23,723 professional experts?
They all realize that soap must cleanse without irritating; must refresh and beautify the skin without injuring its delicate texture. And Palmolive answers these needs perfectly. Its vegetable oils have been used by lovely women since the days of Cleopatra.
Palmolive owes its natural green color to palm and olive oils . . . to no other fats whatever. It is a pure vegetable oil soap, safe for the most sensitive skin.
"Vegetable oils in soap," says Mme. Dahlstrand, "will help to improve your color and tone up your skin."
Take Mme. Dahlstrand's advice and begin this day to use Palmolive.
Made in Palmolive's Canadian factory, one of the finest soap factories in the world.

WHAT WOULD AID MOTHER?

There Are Many Practical Gifts Which Would Lighten Her Labors

MOTHER'S DAY GIVES A CHANCE TO HELP

The celebration of Mother's Day has this year been set for Sunday, May 10, to be commemorated, not only with greetings, but with gifts, both artistic and practical, to lighten the burden of the "Guardian Angel of the Home."

The movement, first recognized in the British Isles in 1914, has spread through the years until now it is prevalent in practically every country in Europe and on this continent. Those who are newspaper readers noticed articles on the rush of business done during the few days previous to last year's Mother's Day, in many cases the merchants being completely sold out of certain lines, while such establishments as florists and photographers were forced to turn away business, so great was the demand.

CONDITIONS NOW CHANGED

Times have changed; gone are the days when the only compensation for motherhood was a lifetime of interminal drudgery, lightened by the knowledge that the work was done for her loved ones, but practical slavery just the same. Modern science and household service has changed these conditions completely. Electricity, the most amazing of domestic servants, is now accepted as a common factor of everyday life. Many are the accessories that amount to freedom for the housewife when installed. Mothers now have the opportunity to appreciate fully such attentions as are bestowed upon them, no more do they forfeit their claims to art, music and amusement when taking over the cares of a home.

Mother's Day was inaugurated twenty-five years ago by Miss Anna Jarvis in memory of her own mother and the movement has spread now until it has covered practically every part of the globe, materially aiding in the trend toward greater happiness and lighter work for the mother.

PRACTICAL HELP NEEDED

Kind words and wishes are excellent and will always be addressed to mother on her special day, but her family is learning, through the medium of newspapers and in other days, that mothers need, above all else, sturdy health for the task of bearing and raising children. She needs contact with the world to ripen her judgment in advising and guiding her young ones, and she needs amusement and freedom to maintain her good nature and to impart this wonderful quality to those under her care.

Mother's Day means more than sentiment. It brings to the guardian of the home greetings and practical help, and every indication points to an even greater recognition of this world-wide movement in 1931.

"Are you sure you have shown me all the principal parts of this car?" asks the fair prospective purchaser.

"Yes, madam, all the main ones," replied the dealer.

"Well, then, where's the depreciation? My cousin told me that that was one of the biggest things about a car."

CANADIANS WILL MEET ELKS NINE

Jack Noble and Norm Forbes to Hook Up in Mound Duel in Ball Fixture Tonight

BIG CROWD EXPECTED TO ATTEND STRUGGLE

With a chance to jump into a tie for first place in the Senior Amateur Baseball League race, Sons of Canada will rely upon the hurling of Jack Noble this evening at the Royal Athletic Park, when they take the diamond against the Elks at 6.15 o'clock, in what promises to be one of the season's best battles. In the opening fixture of the league, the Canadians hit the hill to all parts of the lot to take an easy decision from the Eagles, behind the fine twirling of the youthful Lloyd Cann.

Word came from the Elks' camp yesterday that Norm Forbes will be given the call for the heaving duties, with Tommy Bowden behind the bat. With Noble and Forbes doing the mound work, the fans expect to witness a real pitching duel, as both have good arms and are expected to go the distance.

Manager Jack Bacon will attend to the backstop duties for the Sons, while Cab Collins, Falconer Campbell, Johnny Craig and Cliff Hilton will complete the inner defence. Bill Holman, Roy Haines and Harry Down will do the fly chasing.

Either Doc Webster or Claude Belcher will play first for the antlered crew, with Minnis, McKenzie and Morgan completing the infield. Murty Dunn, Herb Cumpsina and Elmer Smith will comprise the outer garden. Umpire Steve Redgrave will be in charge.

CALIFORNIA ICE HOCKEY LOOP TO BE REORGANIZED

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7 (AP).—Reorganization of the California Ice Hockey League, to include teams from Sacramento and Reno, is being planned, it was revealed here yesterday by Sammy Care, holder of the San Francisco Tigers franchise. Under this plan the league would include teams from Los Angeles, Oakland, San Francisco, Sacramento and Reno.

If the scheme goes through, Care says, Los Angeles will have two teams, while either the San Francisco Black Hawks or the Tigers will go to Reno and the other San Francisco team will be moved to Sacramento. The Oakland Checkers would then move into San Francisco, leaving the East Bay field open to the Oakland Sheiks.

KING AND QUEEN SEE RUNNING OF ITALIAN DERBY

ROME, May 7 (AP).—With the King and Queen and members of their court looking on, Stupinigis Oberon today won the forty-eighth running of the Royal Derby, Italy's greatest racing classic. The winner's time for the 2,400 metres, approximately a mile and a half, was 2 minutes 38 seconds. Oberon, ridden by Pacifici, won by three-quarters of a length over Tesios Cossaert, with Delta third, two lengths further back. The purse was $16,000.

George Voigt to Play in British Amateur and Open

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP).—George Voigt, who was eliminated by Bobby Jones in the semi-finals of the British Amateur golf championship last year, sailed aboard the Aquitania tonight for another shot at the title. Voigt plans to compete in the amateur championship at Westward Ho, starting May 19, and in the British Open at Carnoustie, June 1.

Morley Shire Makes Dodo at Point Grey

VANCOUVER, May 7.—Playing a club tournament match with S. H. Abrams on Wednesday at Point Grey, Morley Shire made sure of winning the eleventh hole by sinking his tee shot. The excitement must have been too much for Shire, as Abrams won the match. The eleventh is a 100-yard hole.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT - - - - - - - - By Ripley

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON

The Moon Is Upside Down in Argentina—The moon's rotation on her own axis coincides with its revolution around the earth, so that our view of the earth's satellite is limited to a singular lunar hemisphere. We are all familiar with the lunar resemblance to a human face. (Man in the Moon) when viewed with the naked eye. Now it comes as a distinct shock to learn that our view of the moon is not independent of earthly geographical location. To each inhabitant of our globe, with varying geographical position of the observer, the aspect of the lunar disc varies until south of the Tropic of Capricorn, the "Man in the Moon" appears suspended upside down. The irregularly spotted surface of the moon is to an observer in the Argentine the exact reverse of the aspect with which we are familiar in the Northern Hemisphere. The same principle holds for the moon's phases. See: Prof. Max Moeller's article in The Imperial and Royal Geographic Society Magazine, Vol. 58, page 515, in collaboration with the Argentine National Observatory (Observatorio Nacional Argentino).

Pinch-Hitter Poles Out Four-Ply Hit In Twilight Battle

Ross' Circuit Drive in Last Half of Seventh Inning Gives Fords Even Break With Automotives—Final Score, 6-6, After Exciting Tussle

FULFILLING the role of a pinch-hitter in regular big-league style, "Lefty" Ross, relief hurler, smashed out a long drive to right field in the last half of the seventh inning for a home run to give the Fords, last year's Garage League champions, an even break against the Automotives in a Twilight Baseball League fixture last night at the Royal Athletic Park. Ross' circuit drive tied the score at 6-6, but the next trio of batsmen went down in regular order, and Umpire Wally Simpson called the game on account of darkness.

Both squads played bang-up ball throughout and had the large crowd of spectators in a frenzy at intervals during the tussle. It was anybody's game until the last batter in the seventh was called out on pitched balls. Both moundsmen, the veteran Doc Todd, of the Fords, and Pollard, of the Automotives, pitched steady ball and received fairly good support from their teammates. Pollard has his curves and fast ball working to perfection, and breezed twelve Fords, while Todd used a fine change of pace to strike out five.

TAKE LEAD

From the call, "Play ball," the Automotives started to function, and before their half of the first inning was ended, Wilkinson and H. Pollard crossed the plate. Rutledge, W. Williams and Sudgen went out in regular order for the Fords in the initial frame. Moore and Hughes tied the count in the second for the Fords. Continuing their heavy hitting in the third, the Fords took a two-run lead when Rutledge and W. Williams scored.

Alex Quinn started the fourth frame with a long single against the fence, stole second and raced home on Devereaux's timely clout. The latter died on third base when the next trio of batters failed to come through. In the sixth, the Fords increased their lead when Hughes smacked one of Pollard's fast ones far and deep into right field for a home run. It was a long drive which caught the fielder playing out of place.

DOUBLE KILLING

The seventh inning was full of excitement. Hubbard, the first man up for the Automotives, managed to get to first. Eastwood fanned. Pollard and Wilkinson both connected, and Hubbard raced across the rubber. H. Pollard nearly won his own game when h picked one of Doc Todd's curves for a three-bagger. Rivers walked and stole second. Cornett hit a long high fly between centre and right field, and Hughes raced like a deer and speared it and then completed a double killing by catching Rivers off second to end the inning.

Using baseball strategy at the critical moments in order to avert defeat, Ross was sent in to bat for Sudgen in the last half of the seventh. With a strike and a ball called, he hit the next pitch to deep right for the round trip to tie up the battle, and the game was called a few minutes later when darkness set in.

Score by innings follows:

Automotives	200 100 3—6
Fords	022 001 1—6

Teams follow

Fords — Rutledge, W. Williams, Sudgen, Irving, Moore, Hughes, Todd, Featherson, P. Williams and Ross.

Automotives—L. Pollard, Wilkinson, H. Pollard, Rivers, Cornett, Quinn, Devereaux, Hubbard and Eastwood.

MALCEWITZ WINS FROM TED THYE

VANCOUVER, May 7 (CP).—Joe Malcewitz, Utica, N.Y., wrestler, took a much-disputed odd-fall decision from Ted Thye, Portland, Ore., in a feature mat bout here tonight. All square at one fall each, Malcewitz was awarded the deciding fall in the fifth round when Referee Draper said that Thye's shoulders had been pinned by an arm lock and a body press.

Thye vigorously protested the decision and it looked as if the grapplers were going to resume hostilities without benefit of a referee. Draper returned to the ring, however, and once again raised Malcewitz's hand as a token of victory, and it was all over.

In the other bouts, Jack McLaughlin, of Vancouver, and Chet Wiles, of Portland, Ore., went four fast rounds to a no-fall draw, while Dr. Freddie Meyers, Chicago, took a one-fall victory from Stan Burch, Omaha, Neb.

BOWLING MEETING

A general meeting of the Lake Hill Lawn Bowling Club will be held in the Lake Hill Community Hall this evening at 8.30 o'clock. All interested are asked to attend.

Softballer Suspended At Meeting

Art Carr, star pitcher for the New Method Laundry softball squad, was suspended indefinitely by the Lower Island Softball Association last night at a special meeting held at the Y.M.C.A. Carr will remain on the black list until he has properly acquired his application for transfer from the Victoria City Commercial League to the Westholme loop. Affiliation of the Junior and Women's Leagues with the Lower Island body was accepted at the meeting.

Hill Climb to Be Staged at Banff May 24

BANFF, May 7.—Sponsored by the Alberta Motor Cycle Association, the Western Canada motor cycle hill climbing championships will be held at Banff, in the Canadian Rockies, on the morning of May 24, and the Banff annual regatta in the afternoon.

The scene of the motor cycle contests will be on the west highway, about half a mile from the town limits and about one and a half miles from the Banff Springs Hotel. Members of the association have chosen the steep foot of Mount Norquay for the test, and this will be marked with two painted lines seven feet apart. No path will be prepared, as the contestants will be required to climb the natural bank. Assistants will be stationed at the point where it is estimated that the cycles will stop, and their duties will be to seize men and machines to prevent them turning over backwards on the almost perpendicular track.

Calgary officials of the association report that to date two entries have been received from Edmonton, eighteen from Lethbridge and district, two are expected from Moose Jaw, and sufficient to make the total more than fifty have been made in Calgary. Last year the contests were held in Calgary, but the intentions are to hold them annually at Banff. There will be three classes of contests, the 45 class, 74 class, and free for all.

CANADIAN MAT CHAMP WINS FROM ZBYSZKO

CALGARY, May 7.—Dazed by a blow delivered to the jaw by the open hand, Stanley Zbyszko, the veteran Pole, was pinned to the mat for the third and deciding fall by Jack Taylor, Canadian heavyweight champion wrestler, at the Victoria Pavilion tonight.

Taylor won the first fall in 16:42, using a double wrist lock. Zbyszko took the second with a bar arm lock in 28:20. The third fall came after 6 minutes and 30 seconds. Taylor using a cradle lock to gain the decision after knocking Zbyszko to the mat.

Lacrosse Body to Hold Meeting on Monday Evening

THE annual meeting of the Victoria and District Lacrosse Association will be held at the Y.M.C.A., Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, when election of officers and preparations for an all-star squad to play an exhibition fixture against the classy Richmond aggregation around May 24 will be discussed. All last year's officers and those interested are asked to attend.

GOLF TEAMS TO PLAY IN CUP MATCH

British and United States Women Arrange International Series

COMPETITION TO START NEXT YEAR

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP).—Arrangements for an official series of women's international golf team matches between the United States and Great Britain have been completed, H. H. Ramsay, president of the U.S. Golf Association, announced today. The first competition, for a trophy to be known as the Curtis Cup, will be held in Great Britain in 1932.

Inauguration of the new series for women golfers of the two countries, along the lines of the now famous Walker Cup competition for men, follows negotiations between representatives of the women's committee of the U.S.G.A. and the Women's Golf Union of Great Britain.

EVERY TWO YEARS

Details remain to be worked out, Mr. Ramsay said, but the probability is the Curtis Cup matches will be played every two years, alternately in the United States and Great Britain, as is the case now with the Walker Cup competition.

The Curtis Cup is the gift of the Misses Margaret and Harriet Curtis, of Boston. Each of the donors formerly held the United States women's championship, Harriet Curtis in 1906, and her sister in 1907.

Informally, a team of American women golfers, led by Glenna Collett, the national champion, played a British team, led by Molly Gourlay, at Sunningdale, England last Spring. The British team won by a score of 8 1-2 to 6 1-2.

The decision to play the first official Curtis Cup series abroad was prompted by the fact that the 1932 Walker Cup matches are to be played in the United States.

STRONG CONTINGENT ENTERED FOR MEET AT COLWOOD LINKS

Finest Fair Sex Players in Province Will Tee-Off in Eighteen-Hole Qualifying Test on Tuesday—Mrs. Vera Hutchings to Defend Title—Locals to Offer Stiff Opposition

Annual Intercity Huntting Cup Match Scheduled Monday

A large and representative field will tee off next Tuesday at the Royal Colwood Golf and Country Club when the qualifying test of the British Columbia women's championship will be held over eighteen holes. About thirty entries had been received up until last night by Secretary Walter Parry, among them being the cream of fair sex mashie wielders in the province. Many former champions of the links will seek the crown now held by Mrs. Vera Hutchings, of Vancouver, who will be over to defend her title at the difficult Colwood layout. Mrs. Hutchings is playing strong golf and will tee-off one of the favorites.

Mrs. Vera Hutchings

Stiff opposition is promised the defending champion, and the long-hitting Vancouverite will have to be at the peak of her game if she hopes to repeat. Among the strong contenders already entered are: Mrs. Sweeny, Vancouver, several times holder of the crown; Mrs. Sayward-Wilson, a former titleholder, who won the Colwood title last week; Mrs. Philbrick, who has held several major laurels; Mrs. E. Jackson; Mrs. Parry, runner-up to Mrs. Sayward-Wilson for the Colwood title; Mrs. Gellatley, Vancouver; Miss Dorothy Schwengers, Vancouver; Miss Ruth McLean, Vancouver; Mrs. McAllister, Vancouver; Mrs. Hew Paterson, Mrs. Cecil Eve, Miss Phoebe Hogan, Duncan; Mrs. Lawson and Mrs. Godfrey.

ENGLISH GIRL ENTERED

A newcomer to British Columbia golf will be offered by Vancouver in the person of Miss Norah King, who recently arrived from England. Miss King is a six-handicap player and has played in a number of important tournaments in the Old Country with considerable success. She is reported to be a long hitter and a fine short player. Her appearance here will be watched with interest.

For several weeks the local players have been sharpening up their games for the big event and several are expected to go a long way in the tournament.

Mrs. Sayward-Wilson is expected to be a big threat for the title, as she is playing a strong game now. This was demonstrated last week when she toured the eighteen-hole course in the final round in 87. Mrs. Philbrick, Mrs. Paterson and Mrs. E. Jackson are also expected to offer a strong bid for the silverware.

HUNTTING CUP MATCH

The annual intercity Huntting Cup match between teams of six from Oak Bay, Colwood, Jericho and Shaughnessy will be played Monday over eighteen holes. This is a straight match, with the winners holding the beautiful piece of silverware for a year.

On Tuesday the qualifying round will be held, with the low sixteen entering the championship group. Nonqualifiers will be formed into flights of eight. Match play will start with two rounds on Wednesday in the championship group and one round on Thursday. The final will be played Friday over thirty-six holes.

In addition to the strong Victoria and Vancouver contingent, there will be several Interior and Up-Island players competing. Two entries have been received from Kelowna and one from Nanaimo. No entries had been received from Washington State up until last night, but today's and tomorrow's mail is expected to bring some.

COURSE IN FINE SHAPE

Colwood course is in fine shape for the tournament, the fairways have been groomed for several months and the greens are in excellent shape. A number of new traps have been installed, making the layout a much more severe test.

On Monday the course will be thrown open for practice to those entered in the tournament.

BOXING WAR IS EXPECTED TO BE LONG

Keen Legal Battle Over Primo Carnera Contract Looked For

HEARING TO GET UNDERWAY TODAY

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP).—A boxing problem that may flare into a war between two of the strongest organizations in the game will be laid before the judiciary in Federal Court here tomorrow morning.

Risking the most severe penalties the New York State Athletic Commission can mete out, Madison Square Garden of Illinois will ask for a Federal injunction restraining Primo Carnera from fighting Jack Sharkey under the promotion of Jimmy Johnston at Ebbets Field, June 10. Affidavits for both sides have been filed.

The Garden of Illinois, founded by the late Tex Rickard for the protection of the second Tunney-Dempsey match in Chicago, and revived to handle the title bout between Max Schmeling and Young Stribling in Cleveland, July 3, claims a contract calling for Carnera to meet the winner of that match in September as well as exclusive right to his services up to that time.

Carnera, in his answer filed yesterday, claimed the contract fraudulent, inequitable, and entered into by the Illinois Garden as a subterfuge.

Fishing Bulletin

Trout—Due to cooler weather, catches of trout have not been quite as big during the past week. Good sport has, however, been had at Kemp and the smaller larkes in the Sooke district, Cowichan River at riverside and also near mouth, Cowichan Lake, Little Qualicum at Cameron Lake, and Sproat Lake in Alberni district. Fair sport is reported from Comox district and Campbell River.

Salmon—Although early in the season, runs of good-sized fish are reported at Brentwood, Qualicum and Comox. These are springs.

Species: Cohoes and springs.

Methods: Trolling deep, or on surface with a light tackle. These fish are also occasionally taken on a fly.

Sea Trout—Being caught at mouth of the Cowichan, Sooke and Oyster Rivers.

Method: Trolling with light tackle from boat or wading and fly.

Steelhead—Closed season on east coast waters, open on west coast, but rivers still too high.

Freshwater bass—Season opens July 1.

Grilse—Running well early in week in Saanich Arm; water too rough during last three days. Boats at Brentwood Bay.

Method: Trolling with very light tackle. If fish are playing on surface do not use sinker.

Sea Bass—Fair catches taken occasionally during week off outer harbor and Victoria breakwater.

Method: Halibut skin, minnow or small silver spinner. Evening the best time.

HENDRICK SOLD TO REDS BY ROBINS

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP).—The Brooklyn Dodgers today announced the sale of Harvey Hendrick, reserve outfielder, to the Cincinnati Reds. Hendrick will report to the Reds at Boston on Saturday.

Hendrick has been with the Dodgers for four years, coming up from New Orleans. Before that he had played with Boston and New York in the American League, but was never a regular.

"Why so glum, old chap?"

"I've just had my fortune told by a man."

"But these people don't really know anything."

"This one does. He's my bank

Jockey Seriously Hurt at Del Monte

DEL MONTE, Cal., May 7 (AP).—Roger Cooper, twenty-four, jockey in the last race in the Del Monte Steeplechase here today, was probably fatally injured when his mount failed to clear the last jump. Cooper, whose home is in Louisville, Ky., is in a hospital suffering from a fractured skull.

Cooper was riding Buddy, a horse owned by Lynn Hodges, of Carmel. The horse landed on its head and its neck was broken. Cooper was knocked unconscious and the horse, in its death struggles, kicked him in the face. Physicians said Cooper probably would die.

GLOUCESTER WINS SECOND CRICKET TILT

Defeat Derbyshire by Four Wickets — Hammond Scores 57, Not Out

CASE PILES UP 131 FOR SOMERSET XI

LONDON, May 7 (CP).—Gloucestershire entrenched themselves strongly in the English county cricket championship today when they gained a second victory before most of their serious rivals have got into action. They beat Derbyshire at Cheltenham by four wickets. Wally Hammond scored 57 not out. The scores were: Derbyshire, 100 and 120; Gloucester, 113 and 111 for six wickets.

Nottinghamshire beat Glamorganshire at Nottingham in a friendly match by 301 runs. Notts, 234 and 375 for three wickets, declared; Glamorgan, 161 and 147. (Hills 54, Larwood eight wickets for 54).

In a county championship game at Taunton, Hants made 330 and 44 for no wickets; Somerset, 329 (Case 131).

Friendly games:

At Lords—M.C.C., 320 and 97 for five wickets; Surrey, 210 (Sandham 87).

At Oxford—Oxford 231 and 32 for two wickets; Yorkshire, 385 (Mitchell 62, Greenwood 59).

At Cambridge—Cambridge 181 and 172 (Langridge seven for 32); Sussex, 297 (Bowley 56, Cook 95 not out).

Wanderers and Churchmen Will Meet Tomorrow

The Wanderers and Five C's cricket teams will meet in a friendly match tomorrow afternoon at the Work Point Barracks at 2:30 o'clock. The following will represent the Wanderers: A. J. Darcus (captain), Bossom, Porter, Austin, Collett, Slater, Robinson, Dunn, Normington, Bundock and Moffatt.

Betty Confounds Critics

LAST year the English tennis experts did not think much of Betty Nuthall's tennis form, so she showed them how bad it was by capturing the United States Women's Singles title. Recently she again confounded the experts, who said she was below form, by giving Elizabeth Ryan, one of the world's foremost players, a severe beating, 6-3, 6-2, in the finals of one of the English County championships. The above pictures show the popular English tennis star in action and going on the courts for a match.

Gilbert Nunns and Marcel Rainville Winners in Test Matches

WRIGHT DEFEATED IN HARD BATTLE

TORONTO, May 7 (CP).—Honors went to Gilbert Nunns, of Toronto, and Marcel Rainville, of Montreal, here today at the opening of the three-day Davis Cup lawn tennis trials which will determine the personnel of the Canadian team. Nunns conquered Dr. Jack Wright, of Montreal, former Davis Cup captain, after a protracted five-set match, while Rainville defeated Walter Martin, of Regina, in four sets.

Charlie Leslie, of Montreal, and Dr. Art W. Ham, of Toronto, also gave a spectacular display in a terrific battle which ended tonight at one set each, and will be completed tomorrow.

The Nunns-Wright game went to the former, 5-7, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4, 6-1. Neither player was up to form, although there were occasional flashes of brilliant tennis.

The opening game of the day between Rainville and Martin, produced a variety of tennis, featured by hard driving duels, in which the rangy Westerner proved superior. Rainville showed great finesse, however, and won the match 6-4, 5-7, 6-4, 6-4.

Play will continue tomorrow.

Sid Terris Takes Lacing From Gaito

YONKERS, N.Y., May 7 (AP).—Sid Terris, one-time lightweight contender, failed in another attempted comeback tonight at the Columbus Sporting Club, taking a six-round lacing from Johnny Gaito of Yonkers. Gaito scored heavily with a body attack throughout. He weighed 133 pounds, Terris 132 1-4.

DUNDEE STOPS KERR

PATERSON, N.J., May 7 (AP).—Vince Dundee, Baltimore middleweight, stopped Johnny Kerr, of Bayonne, N.J., in the sixth round of a ten-round bout here tonight. Dundee dealt out terrific body punishment, and Kerr was on the verge of a knockout when Referee Whitey Healy called a halt.

Dundee weighed 160 pounds, Kerr 158.

Mrs. Sayward-Wilson And Mrs. Brown Win Medal Competitions

Mrs. Sayward-Wilson, who captured the club championship last week, demonstrated again yesterday that she is playing sound golf, when she won the class "A" monthly medal round in a young gale, with 93, 8, 85. Mrs. H. E. Brown took the prize in class "B" with 118, 36, 83.

EMMA ALEXANDER IN

Inbound from California ports, the Pacific Steamship Company's liner St. Emma Alexander, Captain G. A. Harris, docked at Rithet Piers shortly before 10 o'clock last night, and proceeded to Seattle at midnight.

The Emma Alexander brought ferty passengers for Victoria, a number of them proceeding to the Mainland by the night boat. She also had some general cargo, amounting to eighty tons for local discharge.

NEW WESTMINSTER, TOO

OTTAWA, May 7 (CP).—Harbor inquiry to be conducted under the direction of Sir Alexander Gibb, eminent British port expert, will investigate the harbor of New Westminster as well as Vancouver. Premier R. B. Bennett gave this answer in the House of Commons today in answer to Thomas Reid (Liberal, New Westminster).

HAMILTON PRIEST BECOMES BISHOP

Rt. Rev. J. A. O'Sullivan Is Consecrated at Impressive Ceremony Before Distinguished Gathering

HAMILTON, May 7 (CP).—A long procession of surpliced priests, monsignori and bishops this morning at 9:30 o'clock marched through a guard of honor, composed of members of the fourth degree Knights of Columbus to St. Mary's Pro-Cathedr.', escorting Rt. Rev. J. A. O'Sullivan, bishop-elect of Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, to the ceremonies of his consecration.

There were present some of the most distinguished representatives of the Roman Catholic hierarchy in Canada, a group including fifteen bishops and seven archbishops.

Bishop O'Sullivan is the first native son of this city to be so elevated by the church.

His Excellency Most Rev. Andrew Cassulo, D.D., apostolic delegate to Canada, acted as consecrator at the ceremonies.

RELIEF IN APRIL WAS $2,000 MORE

Heavier Demand Made on Friendly Help This Spring Than Last Year

Over $2,000 more was spent in relief during April of this year than in the corresponding month last year, according to the report of the secretary submitted at the monthly meeting of the Friendly Help Association. In consequence of the heavy demand made through unemployment conditions the funds of the association are very low, and cash donations would be most acceptable.

There is still a great demand for men's clothing and shoes. The single men manage to get food, but cannot buy clothes. In April 252 families, representing 868 persons, were assisted, 568 grocery orders were issued, 115 fuel orders, 434 meat orders, 80 families got milk daily, 43 families were given clothing, 118 families received provisions from the rooms, including Easter gifts, milk, vegetables, seeds and meat; 20 families got sundry articles, 34 women got clothing only, three of these from Saanich; 68 lone men got clothing only, three of these from Saanich, said the secretary's report.

The association acknowledges the sum of $64.25 received from the Hudson's Bay Beaver Club, proceeds from the concert; also $40 from the Kiwanis charity football game. Mrs. C. E. Whitaker, 1509 Rockland Avenue, very kindly offered to arrange a silver tea to augment the funds of the association on Saturday, May 30, from 3 to 6 p.m.

GOVERNMENT HAS NO PLAN TO TAKE OVER RADIUM ORE CLAIMS

OTTAWA, May 7 (CP).—So far, the Dominion Government has not considered taking over radium properties which have been located and staked by prospectors. Hon. W. A. Gordon, Minister of Mines, made this declaration in the House of Commons today in respect to recent radium discoveries at Echo Bay in the Northwest Territories and earlier discoveries in Ontario.

"The question of the control of radioactive ores in Canada has not been considered very seriously by my Government," Mr. Gordon stated in answer to a query by Hon. F. Heenan (Liberal, Kenora-Rainy River).

MARINE and TRANSPORTATION

Latest Vessel for Tri-City Service Arrived Yesterday

Prince Robert Completed Fine Voyage From Halifax—Welcomed by Representatives of City and Presented With Ensign

Maritime Province folk aboard the Ss. Prince Robert, third ship of the Canadian National Steamships, Limited, to reach Victoria within the past twelve months, had their first introduction to the city under well-nigh perfect springtime conditions. Coming up from William Head Quarantine Station early yesterday morning on a good ship with a brisk following breeze and a bright sun shining, Victoria and its setting made a picture which a number of the voyagers from Halifax aboard considered magnificent, saying so after the boat had tied up.

Docking shortly after 9 o'clock at Ogden Point Piers, as soon as the ship was cleared the reception committee, headed by Alderman Adam and including Aldermen Peden and Litchfield, boarded the vessel, and meeting officials of the company, together with Captain Harry Nedden, just outside the latter's door on the boat deck, presented him with a Canadian ensign.

PRESENTED FLAG

Alderman Adam, in presenting the flag on behalf of the citizens of Victoria, stated that he was acting in the absence of Mayor Anscomb and wished the steamship company every success, complimented it upon its policy and hoped the three fine steamers added to coast shipping by the Canadian National would be the forerunners of many others in the days to come.

Both Colonel J. Carleton Brown, newly-appointed coast manager of the Canadian National Steamships, Limited, succeeding B. C. Keeley, and Captain Nedden, replied to the kind wishes of Alderman Adam in a fitting manner, the former stating that it would be the policy of the steamship company to strive for the satisfaction of the traveling public at all times, while the latter assured the city's representatives that the flag would occupy a place of honor on the ship as long as it held together.

Following the presentation of the ensign, the Prince Robert was inspected, many visitors from ashore joining local transportation men in viewing the appointments of the sister vessel to the steamships Prince Henry and Prince David.

Very similar to the ships which have been in commission on the Coast for some time, there was nothing new revealed except that the furnishings are slightly different from those on the other vessels. The Prince Robert remained at the ocean docks all day yesterday, giving her passengers from the east coast an opportunity of night-seeing and local people a chance to see what she looks like inside and outside. She is scheduled to sail from Ogden Point at 9 o'clock this morning for Vancouver, where the voyage from Halifax will be completed. After reconditioning following her voyaging, the Prince Robert will come on the tri-city run on June 21.

FROM MARITIMES

Included in the passenger list of the Prince Robert were Herbert Baker, member of the Aldermanic Council of Edmonton, returning home from a trip to Eastern Canada; F. C. Barker, owner and proprietor of the Barker House, a popular hotel of Moncton, traveling with Mrs. Barker; C. S. Bares, a tourist from Halifax; A. E. Beckett, K.C., chief solicitor of the legal department of the Canadian National Railways, from Montreal; J. H. Brown, a tourist from Moncton; L. Burran, retired electrical engineer, Quebec, with Mrs. Burran; Mrs. J. Courtney, a tourist from Halifax; W. R. Fitzmaurice, general superintendent of the Canadian National Railways, Halifax, accompanied by Mrs. Fitzmaurice; Miss S. Forbes, a tourist from Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. A. Harvey, tourists from Vancouver, who took the all-sea route to get home; Miss Ethel M. Hoar, a tourist from Moncton; Mr. and Mrs. W. O'Leary, president and manager of the O'Leary Company, general merchants of Richibucto; Captain J. E. Masters, insurance broker, of the firm of Masters & Wheeler, Moncton, and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. McCarthy, Moncton.

Others aboard included G. S. Moffatt, sales manager for Moirs, Limited, Halifax; F. W. Robertson, retired passenger agent of the C.N.R., Moncton; Mrs. J. M. Rutherford, a tourist from Halifax; G. S. Spencer, owner and manager of the Spencer Drug Company, Moncton; W. C. Stone, a retired chemist, of Montreal; F. R. Summer, president and manager of the Sumner Hardware Company, Moncton; R. E. Winchester, train dispatcher for the Dominion Atlantic Railway of Kentville, accompanied by Mrs. Winchester; and W. C. Wright, president of Wright & McFadden, insurance adjusters, of Toronto, accompanied by Mrs. Wright.

EMBARKED AT BOSTON

Passengers boarding the ship at Boston included Mrs. William C. Cumming, P. Cumming and Miss Joan Cumming, wife, son and daughter of the ship's surgeon, who will make their home on the Coast; Hon. Dr. Forbes Godfrey, former Minister of Health, Ontario Government, Toronto; and Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, of Vancouver, the former being an importer and exporter of fruits and vegetables. Embarking at Havana were Mrs. Hugh A. Chisholm, Miss A. Chisholm and Miss M. E. Chisholm, wife and family of H. A. Chisholm, manager Sun Life Assurance Company, Havana; Mrs. H. Extence and children, wife and family of H. Extence, secretary and treasurer Trust Company, Havana, and Mrs. James Stewart and J. Stewart, wife and son of J. Stewart, supervisor of the Royal Bank of Canada, Cuba.

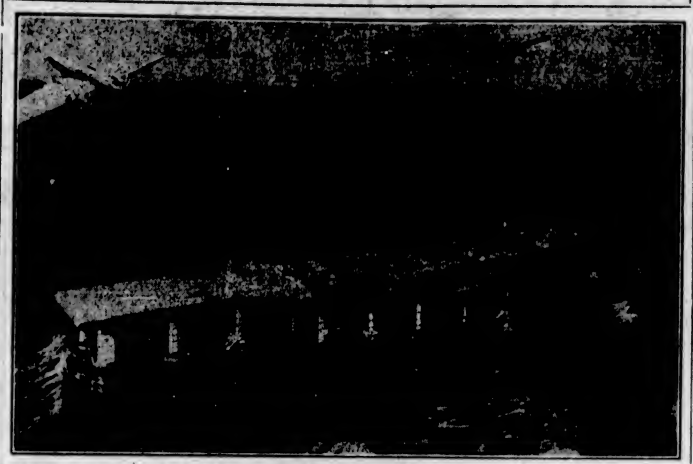
Contracts Let for Great Seadrome



THE midocean man-made island which was dreamed of when man first started to fly over the Atlantic Ocean, is now to be a reality. According to reports, contracts for the construction of the seadrome have been let and its financial backing is most impressive. For the present, only one seadrome will be built, but the plans call for eight eventually, strung across the ocean, with hotels, storage rooms, fuel tanks and other facilities which will enable a transoceanic service to operate regularly. The above picture shows an Armstrong Synthetic Island as it looks in the plans.

Canuck Sailors On Yankee Craft May Be Deported

NEW YORK, May 7.—A move to bar foreign seamen, including Canadians, from employment as members of crews on United States-owned yachts was seen today in a letter dispatched last night by Edward C. Rybicki, director of the city free employment agency, to Secretary of Labor Doak, suggesting his department conduct an investigation to determine to what extent employment of foreign seamen by yachtsmen is practised.

TOWBOAT STRIKE STILL UNCHANGED

Trades and Labor Council Pledges Moral Support to Merchant Service Guild

VANCOUVER, May 7 (CP).—The towboat strike is unchanged, with both owners and men standing fast. The Canadian Merchant Service Guild has received notification from the Vancouver and New Westminster District Trades and Labor Council that the latter body, at its last regular meeting, endorsed the strike of the towboat masters and mates and pledged them all moral support.

The Fraser freshet, now on, will shut off log towing on the river in a few days if it continues to rise as it has been doing in the past few days, and towboats engaged in taking logs up the river are rushing work in order to have a sufficient stock of logs at the mills to keep the saws working.

Pilots Bail Out When Planes Met And Land Safely

BANBURY, May 7 (AP).—Two pilots of the Royal Air Force saved their lives by parachute jumps when their machines collided 14,000 feet in the air near here last night. Flight-Lieutenant E. S. Borthwick-Clarke and Pilot Officer W. H. Kyle bailed out and landed safely.

Earlier in the day there was a similar accident near Aldershot when two army planes collided 4,0000 feet up. Pilot Officer John Davis and Pilot Sergeant Blake took to their parachutes when their planes crashed. Neither was injured.

All-Steel Coaches Avert Fire on Eastbound Train

VANCOUVER, May 7.—All-steel coaches, used on Canadian Pacific transcontinental trains, averted a serious fire on No. 3 eastbound train early today at Hatzic, when by some means not yet determined, fire broke out in the vestibule between the Pullman cars Naples and Severn Hills.

Passengers were driven from their berths, but the blaze was extinguished by company officials, without damage other than a burned bellows connection and blistered doors. The cars were cut out and attached to No. 2 for return to Vancouver. The fire is believed to have been caused by a cigarette butt.

Rubber Boat Was Part of Renahan Plane Equipment

PRINCE RUPERT, May 7.—Pilot Meyring, who arrived here yesterday afternoon in his seaplane Sitka, after examining the rubber boat on the beach at Zayas Island, said it was exactly like the one he knew that had formed part of the equipment of a plane flown by Robin Renahan, lost aviator, on his last flight to the North. While Meyring could not positively identify the boat, he said there seemed little doubt but that it was Renahan's. Last year, Meyring said, he had used Renahan's plane for a while and was familiar with its equipment.

NOVA SCOTIA IS INCLUDED

Cunard Vessels Will Make Halifax Port of Call on Cruises

FIRST VOYAGE FROM NEW YORK IN JULY

In an effort to further increase the popularity of Nova Scotia as a tourist country among Americans, the Cunard Line announced today that their now famous week-end cruises, scheduled for the months of July, August and September, will include a call at a Nova Scotia port.

The statement that was issued by Arthur Randles, general passenger traffic manager of the Cunard Line in Canada, also pointed out the fact that not only will the week-end cruises call there, but those of the special Summer cruises, under the auspices of the National Tours, will also make Halifax a port of call. The co-operation of the Nova Scotian authorities has been secured, and every effort will be made to see that passengers on these cruises are given as much time ashore as possible to view the many attractions which the Maritime Provinces have to offer.

"This will be the first time," said Mr. Randles, "that three giant express liners of the size of the Berengaria, Aquitania anw Mauretania have called at Halifax, except that the Aquitania and Mauretania occasionally visited the ancient port during the war. The first sailing of the week-end cruises to call at a Nova Scotian port will be the Aquitania, July 3, from New York. These cruises will be carried on throughout the Summer until the last sailing of the Mauretania, leaving New York on September 18, while the National Tours cruises will commence on July 27 with the Transylvania and finish with the sailing from New York on August 31 of the Cameronia.

"Until July there are scheduled four week-end cruises from New York, the first leaving New York on May 2 in the Aquitania, calling at Bermuda. The second cruise will be that of the Mauretania, leaving New York on May 15, calling at Nassau in the Bahamas. The third cruise is that of the Berengaria, leaving New York on May 29 and calling at Bermuda, to be followed by a cruise of the Mauretania on June 5 to Nassau. The week-end cruises to Nova Scotia will then follow. The cruise of the Berengaria is also unique in the fact that it is the largest liner ever to visit Bermuda."

Steamer Sicamous Will Continue in Okanagan Service

General Supt. Cotterell and Other Officials Decide Against Depriving Residents on Lake of Water Transportation Facilities

VERNON, May 7.—The steamer Sicamous, plying the Okanagan Lake daily between Penticton on the south and Okanagan Landing at the north, will not be taken from the run. This is the announcement made by General Supt. C. A. Cotterell. A portion of C. A. Cotterell's statement follows:

"From the point of view of good business, it is generally admitted throughout the valley that the company would be perfectly justified in withdrawing this service, which would be the easiest way out of the position in which it finds itself today. However, I cannot bring myself to the point of making such a recommendation, even though it may be argued that it would only be taking away a convenience from a comparatively small number of people.

"After fully considering the matter and with the co-operation of N. R. DesBrisay, assistant passenger traffic manager; H. W. Gillis, assistant freight traffic manager; A. T. McKean, general freight agent; W. M. Gordon, general superintendent, Canadian Pacific Express Company, and Supt. J. J. Horn, it has been decided to carry on and depend upon the fairness of the people throughout the Okanagan Valley to assist in making our burden as light as possible."

OCEAN FLIGHT DURING MONTH

Ruth Nichols Will Take Off From St. John's for Le Bourget Shortly

HAVRE, France, May 7 (AP).—Captain H. Railey, manager of Ruth Nichols, said on debarking from the liner Paris today that the American girl flyer would make her proposed transatlantic flight from St. John's, Newfoundland, to Le Bourget, France, between May 20 and June 1.

Miss Nichols will fly from New York to St. John's on the first lap, Captain Railey said, refueling there for the ocean hop. She expects to make the flight in about fourteen hours, he said, inasmuch as her plane is capable of a speed of 230 miles per hour.

VANCOUVER SHIPPING

VANCOUVER, May 7. — Within the past few months there has been a considerable increase in the movement of bean oil through Vancouver, and recently the first bulk shipment of peanut oil arrived. Six hundred and fifty tons of peanut oil were discharged off Ss. Tacoma from Manchuria, to G. H. Cottrell, Ltd., onto a train of twenty-five tank cars for Winnipeg. There it will be converted into the multiple uses in which this product is used.

About the same time 350 tons of bean oil from North China arrived to the same firm on Ss. Shidzuoka Maru, and were dispatched to soap factories in Calgary, Winnipeg, Toronto and Hamilton.

Bean oil has moved through the port for some time, though not in the quantities that it is now expected it will. Formerly some passed through Seattle, but it is understood that now all bean oil for Canadian delivery will be landed here.

Canadian-American Shipping Co., Ltd., reports Ss. Chief Capilano, due at Alberni on May 20 to load lumber. The ship will take a full cargo of lumber, grain and logs from British Columbia ports for Japan.

Ss. Melmay sailed today from Columbia River for the Orient with a full cargo of logs and lumber.

The Secret of MARGARET YORKE

By Kathleen Norris

CHAPTER XXV

Stanley came into the big hotel room with a glorious rush of spirits. He kissed Margaret quite simply, when he came in, and they stood, holding hands at arm's length and smiling at each other.

"My darling! do you realize what this means?" he asked, exultantly. "I'm free!"

"But I'm not!" she reminded him, ruefully smiling. Immediately, however, her April smile broke out, and she said, "Stan, I am glad! It does seem to bring everything nearer, and it makes one feel that almost any change might come! Show me the telegram."

He took the crumpled yellow paper from his pocket, and Margaret read:

"Cuyler much better. We were re-married this morning. Know you will forgive me. I am the happiest girl in the world. Much love."

It was signed "Shirley." Margaret and Stanley read it more than once, marvelling at it, and trying to read between the lines.

"She got there Monday," Stan calculated. "She must have seen Theobald right away. She said that she knew she could do anything with him, if she once saw him, but, by George!" he added thoughtfully, "she didn't lose much time!"

They sat down on the big davenport where Margaret had been lying, and locked hands.

"And now I think you must really tell me, my darling, where your husband is, and what he is, and how we can tackle him."

"He is alive," she answered simply, "and that is the whole story. But I have courage now," she added, "and I have hope! I can't tell you why I feel so, Stan, but I believe that by this time next year—I can't say that, either," Margaret interrupted herself, flushing nervously, "but I do believe that you and I are going to be happy, one of these days!" she finished.

"Can you imagine the scene?" Stanley said, luxuriating in the details that had secured him his miraculous freedom. "Poor old Theobald harried to death with doctors and nurses. Shirley floats in, all tact and tenderness, knowing his tastes, knowing all about him, having taken him through one of these bouts before! I can see her putting the idea of remarriage into his head, and then being immensely surprised when he took hold of it."

"I can't believe it yet!" And Margaret's face expressed utter disbelief.

"And now, this will alter your plans, dear!"

"I don't see why," she said, a little startled.

"But doesn't it mean that you and the kid can come back to the farm?"

"I wish it did," said Margaret thoughtfully. "But—there's you," she reminded him wistfully. "It's going to be hard for us both, waiting."

"Not if we're engaged!" Stanley suggested buoyantly.

"Yes, but we can't be engaged, Stan. Not openly, at least. And even if we were, people would think it was extraordinary, my living under your roof. And more than that, it isn't right," Margaret said. "Could we get somebody to stay there with you?"

"Well, we could. But that's a big establishment, Stan. Hang and Chung, and Nora and Jim and me, and then a companion besides."

"My dear girl," said Stanley, "if you knew how rich I feel, how free I feel, tonight, you'd realize that money is a secondary consideration! You get some nice old Grundy—What is it?"—for she had suddenly straightened herself.

"Stan, how about those old cousins of yours, the Peterses, from The Dalles—don't you remember that they came to your aunt's funeral and said that they might sell their house up there and live in a warmer climate? How about that?"

"I'll write 'em tonight!" Stan said, fired. "I'll wire them!" he amended.

The door opened, and Nora and Jim came in. Jimmie, cold and rosy and hungry, threw himself into Stan's arms, and a confusion of changes and meal-ordering followed. Jim had another bath and ate his supper in his wrapper; Margaret went into the adjoining room and changed her gown. Stanley he had announced, was to take his girl to dinner at the Palace.

Mrs. Cuyler Theobald, radiant, surer of herself than ever, made a flying visit to California, in the Spring. She left Mr. Theobald, she explained, comfortable and well cared for, in the New York hotel.

"Happiness has just done wonders for him," Shirley, explained to anyone who was interested. "He will never be well, poor fellow, and the doctors tell me frankly that another stroke would mean—" and Shirley always sighed deeply, paused, and shook her head over the words—"the end."

She had come out to see Cuyler's San Francisco agent, she said, for the bulk of the immense estates he had inherited were in California.

One glowing April afternoon she drove down to the farm. She had now and then caught glimpses of Stan, and she keenly enjoyed the dramatic possibilities of each meeting. Her upward glances were more eloquent than ever, and more than once she had hinted to him that she was anxious for a long talk.

"Because when you know exactly what happened, you're going to forgive me, Stan," she had told him, at their first meeting, when he came, tall and lean and grinning good-naturedly, across the floor of the country club, to greet her.

"My dear girl!" he had said, deprecatingly.

"Not cross?" Shirley had murmured, with a flash of penitent brown eyes.

"Not the least in the world!"

"Shall I come down to the ranch some day, and perhaps we can talk?"

"I'll telephone you—you're with Elise? I'll arrange it," he had said, pleasantly.

She had not wanted the move to be left to him, but there was no help for it, at the moment. Shirley had opened the subject again a few days later.

This time she had been having tea with some women at a hotel, and Margaret and Stanley had come in. Shirley's eyes had widened a little when she had seen his companion, and almost immediately she had gone smilingly over to join them.

"May I break in on this party just a little minute?"

"We haven't ordered!" Margaret had said politely. Shirley had protested eagerly—no indeed, nothing for her, she was with the Ponds.

Reassured, Margaret had sat back somewhat silently and had left the conversation to the others, as Shirley had noted with a certain discomfort and resentment.

"I was wondering if I was ever going to see you, Stan," Shirley had said. "This is the sixteenth, you know, and I must be back about the first! I went down to the oil-fields," Shirley, now occupying a chair, had told them amusedly. "It was great fun, and dear me, how they do coin the money, Stan! It almost scared me, little me, to be Mrs. Cuyler Theobald, and taken about from one head of a department to another, and introduced, and having cars put at my disposal, and everyone kow-towing!"

"You go back about the first," Stanley had repeated.

"Well, I can't leave my dear old boy forever!" Shirley had reminded them, dutifully. "Stan, if you won't ask me to the farm, I shall just have to come, anyway! When shall I come?"

The bronzed, pleasantly lean face had turned to Margaret.

"Could we have a party for Shirley, do you think?"

Shirley had flushed furiously.

"Oh, I beg your pardon!" she had said, abruptly. "I had no idea that Miss York was still at the farm. I thought—just before I went away—that she was going somewhere else. But they told me you had become a perfect hermit, Stan, and hardly ever leave the place, and now I begin to understand it!" Shirley had rushed on, with a nervous laugh. "If you have company there it isn't so bad," she had added, "but I suppose that Miss York and little—what's his name?—Jimmie had gone away. I tried to get some news of this young man," Shirley had said, turning toward Margaret, and for the first time making an effort to include her in the conversation, "but nobody knows anything about him, and Elise de Vilbiss said that she thought you and the little boy had gone up to the Fairmont!"

"We did, for a few days," Margaret had told her, in her serene voice.

"But you went back?" Shirley had asked, with an air of pleasant interest.

"My aunt's cousin, the Peterses, of The Dalles, wanted to come down here for a while," Stan had explained, casually. "He's a fine old boy, a doctor, retired, and she's nice, too. They're in the adobe. They're crazy about the place, and they play bridge, so we all get along finely!"

"I see you do," Shirley had said, dryly, with a shrewd look from one to the other. "Well, I'm coming down, anyway," she had announced, with a sort of discontented daring. "Would I be horribly in the way—let me see—a week from today?" she asked.

Margaret had glanced interrogatively at Stanley, Stanley at Margaret.

"Not at all," Margaret had assured Shirley then, smiling. And Shirley, angry and suspicious, had gone back to her own table, deciding that she would not go to "Uplands" at all.

AMUSEMENTS

On the Screen

Capitol—"Fighting Caravans," featuring Gary Cooper.

Coliseum—Alice White in "Show Girl of Hollywood."

Columbia—"The Fourth Alarm," starring Nick Stuart.

Dominion—Marion Davies in "The Bachelor Father."

Playhouse—"Stepping Out," starring Charlotte Greenwood.

CAPITOL THEATRE How often we have read with bated breath and tingling spine, the adventurous exploits of those hardy frontiersmen of the West. How often we have sat and thrilled at the unfolding story of those silent super pictures. Pictures such as "The Covered Wagon" will never die, never become old; but they have been surpassed in realism and epic greatness by the story brought to the talking screen in "Fighting Caravans," now showing at the Capitol Theatre.

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE Reginald Denny, who plays the male lead in "Stepping Out," at the Playhouse Theatre, is one of the most traveled of actors. He has appeared in England, India, the Orient and on the Continent, to say nothing of his success in this country in "Those Three French Girls," "A Lady's Morals" and "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath."

COLUMBIA THEATRE The new offering at Theatre is "The Fourth Alarm." It is a Continental Production, directed by Phil Whitman, starring Nick Stuart, Ralph Lewis, Ann Christy and Tom Santschi. The picture is a thriller of the first order, and the fans who remember Phil Whitman's last productions will not question this statement. The fire scenes are some of the most thrilling ever shown on the screen.

COLISEUM THEATRE Maxine Cantway, chosen as the "typical chorus girl" of all the movie chorines in talking pictures, uses a budget system in spending and saving her salary. Miss Cantway is one of 300 girls in the lavish Technicolor sequences of "Show Girl in Hollywood," First National film at the Coliseum Theatre.

BRITISH PRODUCTIONS SURPASS THE RECORD

Another bilingual "talkie" has been made by British International Pictures, Ltd., and this is "Murder!" coming to the Coliseum Theatre on Saturday, from the novel, "Enter Sir John," by Clemence Dane and Helen Simpson. It is a bigger "Blackmail"—a swift-moving mystery story, with a sensational climax. This makes the third bilingual to be made by British International Pictures, the previous productions being "Atlantic," which has swept the whole of Europe like a wave; and "The Flame of Love."

No other production company in the world has approached this record. That extraordinarily able producer, Alfred Hitchcock, whose Irish touch enabled him to complete "Juno and the Paycock," to general satisfaction, directed "Murder!" for British International.

"What breed of dog lives the longest?" asks a correspondent in a contemporary. The dachshund.

GIVING SUPPORT TO SPORT FIELD

Businessmen and Citizens Behind Effort of Association to Improve Victoria's Playgrounds

Efforts of supporters of better playing grounds for Victoria are meeting with general success among the businessmeh of the city and citizens. The Victoria Playing Fields Association, which is sponsoring improvements to the old McDonald Estate, has arranged a frolic and dance at the Crystal Garden on May 25, and ticket holders are assured of a good time.

The main object of the association is to obtain funds to carry on the work of improving and enlarging the playing fields in the city and to give employment to men at present out of work. The activities in connection with the fund are in the hands of Charles F. Banfield, V. L. Denton, Alderman W. T. Straith, Alderman John Worthington, Charles V. Milton and D. S. Mowat, assisted by representative citizens.

Bantry, one of the strongest Republican cities in the Irish Free State, has asked the Free State Government to invite the British Admiralty to send warships on a visit to Bantry Bay.

Over an Original Forcing Bid There Should Be No Tendency to Rush the Situation

Over an original bid of one partner should, when lacking a forcing take-out, render a full measure of support in the suit bid. Thus in the above deal if we consider North's hand in support of an original Spade bid of one, four Spades should be bid, for the hand is not strong enough to make a forcing take-out of Hearts with the hope of arriving at a slam.

But where the original bidder by a bid of two has given assurance of a further bid, it may well be better to disclose the possible nature of an assist on the first round and give the full measure of assistance in the original suit on the second round.

It is true that the general theory has been to support partner's two bid immediately when holding four trumps, possibly with the idea of showing that they are held, but where there can be no doubt of being able to show this by a jump bid on the second round, then we may well defer the so called "confirmation" of the suit.

In the above deal should North go to five Spades immediately over South's bid of two, South would of necessity have some doubt as to the character of North's assistance. It might, in fact, consist principally of length in trumps and ability to ruff short suits. If such were the case when a slam bid by South might well be defeated as he is lacking both the Ace of Diamonds and the Ace of Clubs and has a little Heart in his hand which he would not know could be taken care of.

On the other hand, if North over the two Spades bids three Hearts South would receive no immediate information, for North's bid might be on a long and worthless Heart suit. Since North has not confirmed the Spade bid, South must bid three No Trumps over North's three Hearts, and, West passing, North can now go to five Spades and the character of his hand would be thoroughly revealed to South, for the slam has been invited, exceptional support for the Spade has been shown, together with at least one trick in the Heart suit.

Furthermore, since North has not the Ace of Hearts he should certainly have one of the other Aces in order to be so deliberate in inviting the slam.

SALIENT POINTS OF THE BIDDING

Contract—As indicated in the preamble, the bidding is entirely between South and North—East and West always passing, and is as follows:

South, two Spades; North, three Hearts; South, three No Trumps; North, five Spades; South, six Spades, concluding the bidding.

Auction—South obtains the declaration for his original bid of one Spade.

THE PLAY

There is practically no play to the hand. West opens the Jack of Diamonds and must eventually make his Ace of Clubs—North and South making six odd.

FINANCE - COMMERCE - MARKETS

Heavy Buying in Bonds Marks Day; Stocks Are Dull

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP).—A vigorous movement of funds into bonds, anticipating reduction of the New York Federal Reserve discount rate to 1½ per cent and reflecting previously taken steps in the broad easy-money programme, provided a contrast to the uncertain course of stocks in today's financial markets.

Share trading was dull and erratic. The market worked upward during the first hour, but was unsettled by selling of the amusement shares and a few miscellaneous stocks. Most other groups eventually joined the decline, which was sufficient to establish new lows for United States Steel, American Can, Canadian Pacific, Paramount, Western Union, American Smelting, Eaton Axle and some others. Once again, however, a rally came to the rescue in the last hour, and the losses were substantially reduced. There was a liberal sprinkling of small net gains, but a majority of issues returned moderate losses.

Foreign exchanges were firm. There was little variation in either sterling or the French franc.

The trend of the bond market was plainly upward. The advance, however, was not uniform.

REDISCOUNT RATE IS CUT

New York Federal Reserve Reduces Rate to 1½ Per Cent

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP).—The New York Federal Reserve Bank today reduced its rediscount rate from 2 to 1 1-2 per cent.

This is the lowest in the history of the reserve system, and lower than any rate now in effect in any Central Bank in the world.

The new rate follows cuts of 1-2 of 1 per cent in the rates of the Boston and Philadelphia Reserve Banks, bringing their rates down to 2 and 3 per cent, respectively.

The new low rate is half the 3 per cent discount rate of the Bank of England. The lowest rates in effect in foreign Central Banks are the 2 per cent rates of the banks of France and Switzerland.

TORONTO MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

TORONTO, May 7 (CP).—Prices continued easy to the close of the mining market today, net changes for the session among mines practically all taking the form of losses. Some specialities among the oils managed to move against the trend, but tone of the section was irregular. Total sales of 352,157 shares compared with 302,187 Thursday.

Noranda finished down a point and a half and Nickel was off a quarter. An odd-lot of Sherritt Gordon came out at 75, establishing a new low for the year, but other Lindsleys showed little change.

Dome finished a few cents and majority of higher-priced golds were steady. Teck-Hughes was under pressure and down a quarter, however, and Mining Corp. dropped another 5 of its recent gain. In the lower-priced golds recessions of from 3 to 5 cents appeared in Big Missouri, Eldorado, Howey, Columbario, Premier and Macassa, and fractional losses predominated among the active pennies.

Acme Gas supplied a good portion of the trading but, while some slat stronger, failed to make any material advance. Acme rights sold at 3-4 cent. Chemical Research and Olga gained a few cents spiece. Ajax Oil was down 13, Crest 6, Sarnia 10 and Petrol a point.

Fifteen Billion Feet of Gas to Be Kept in Storage

CALGARY, May 7 (CP).—In the belief that the gas supply in Turner Valley might fail at some future date, the Canadian Western Natural Gas, Light, Heat and Power Company is contemplating tripling the capacity of the repressuring plant at Bow Island with the object in view of storing 15,000,000,000 cubic feet of gas within the next ten years, C. J. Yorath, managing director of the company stated during the gas rates hearing Thursday morning.

Mr. Yorath said that the company had already stored about 1,250,000,000 cubic feet of gas to the 7,000,000,000 cubic feet already held in reserve in the Bow Island field.

Fewer Failures in Canada This Year

A smaller business mortality in the Dominion of Canada during the first quarter of this year is reflected in the 746 commercial failures, with liabilities of $17,086,296, as reported by R. G. Dun & Co. The reduction from the totals for the corresponding period of 1930, when there were 789 defaults having an indebtedness of $19,119,296, is about 5 1-2 per cent in point of number of insolvencies and approximately 10 1-2 per cent in amount of money involved.

Numerically, the betterment over the three months recently ended extended to the three main divisions of business—manufacturing, trading and other commercial lines—with the major decrease among manufacturers. Failures in the latter group were less numerous by twenty-seven than those for the first quarter of 1930, while there were declines of seven and nine defaults, respectively, in trading branches and among agents, brokers, etc.

BROKERS' LOANS

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP).—Loans to brokers and dealers held by New York Federal Reserve member banks for the week ending May 6 were announced by the Federal Reserve Board today as $1,699,000,000, representing a decrease of $31,000,000 as compared with the preceding week

PARTIAL RAINS AFFECT MARKET

Possible Break in Prairie Drought Is Indicated—Wheat Futures Decline

WINNIPEG, May 7 (CP).—Showers of rain on parts of the Prairies dampened the ardor of the bull forces today and the wheat dropped sharply. Most of the showers were light but the indications are that more may follow, and may become general over the Spring wheat belt.

The May wheat future slumped 2 1-4 cents to 60 3-4 in a very dull market and July and October lost 1 3-4 and 2 1-8 cents respectively. July finished the day at 61 3-4 and October 63 1-8.

Liquidation held sway through the session and poor export demand overnight aided in increasing the bearish feeling. The drop in wheat futures was not reflected in the cash section, but the coarse grains fell fractionally in sympathy.

C.P.R. and Smelters Rally To Regain Part of Losses; Golds and Oils Are Softer

VANCOUVER, May 7 (CP).—Under the leadership of Premier Gold, which tumbled 4 points, the gold group was inclined to soften on the Vancouver stock market, Thursday. The oils, with the exception of Nordon, on the curb board, were slightly easier. Trading was again extremely dull with interest concentrated on selected issues.

The market, after opening with an edge of firmness and prices in both oils and mines divisions, swung narrowly downward toward the noon close. Trading was negligible in the final session. Despite the apathy, however, a few issues succeeded in hardening up, to close unchanged.

Big Missouri ended the day at 32 1-2 cents bid, a net decline of 1 1-2 cents. Premier opened at 76 cents and dropped gradually to 72 cents, at which price it closed, off 4 cents net. Cotton Belt, after a long absence from the participation, rose 1 1-2 cents to 13 1-2 cents bid.

Both Canadian Pacific and Smelters partly recovered losses suffered in the previous day's trading. C.P.R. rallied 2.25 to 28.25, and Smelters rose 2.00 to 90.00 bid.

Enhanced prospects through ownership of extensive acreage in Alberta's newest oil field at Keho Lake started a buying flurry in Nordon on the curb market, which closed at 29 cents, up 3 cents.

Eastcrest reacted on news of freezing troubles at the company's No. 3 well, but rallied in the closing session to the opening price at 41 cents, a net loss of 4 cents. Mayland softened 2 cents to 42 cents bid, while Amalgamated eased 1 cent to 6 cents.

Free Trade Between Canada And British West Indies Is Plan Now Under Discussion

The Monthly Letter of the Royal Bank of Canada, issued under date of May 1, says:

Since 1913, Canada and the British West Indies have enjoyed mutual trade preferences. The latest trade agreement, signed in 1925, granted such generous preferences on a large number of articles as to give Canada virtual control of the market in so far as many important products were concerned. In return, Canadian duties on the chief exports of the islands, including sugar, bananas and cocoa, were reduced substantially below the British preferential rates which had been in force at that time. Under the terms of this treaty the Canadian National Steamships inaugurated a thoroughly adequate steamship service.

IMPORTS FROM WEST INDIES

Fast and regular transportation facilities have enabled the British West Indies to ship to Canada such perishable products as bananas, citrus fruits and vegetables. This trade in fruit and vegetables has been encouraged by increased tariffs and by special countervailing or dumping duties levied on the imports of these products from the United States. The British West Indies are the logical source for fruits and fresh vegetables, particularly tomatoes, for the Canadian markets during the Winter months and there can be no doubt that the resulting diversification in the British West Indies agricultural production is of direct advantage to the islands.

MARKET FOR CANADA

In a recent number of The Canada-West Indies Magazine, the official organ of the Canadian-West Indian League, there is an analysis of the probable results of the establishment of a free trade agreement between Canada and the British West Indies. It was estimated that, under such an arrangement, Canada's exports to the British West Indies would total $30,000,000 within a comparatively short time. At present Canada's sales in the islands are slightly in excess of $15,000,000 annually. Canada, in return, would admit sugar, cocoa and other tropical products free of duty, if shipped directly from the West Indies.

NOT COMPETITORS

The low prices received for sugar during the past few years have seriously affected the economic welfare of a number of the islands, whose chief export is sugar. Canada imports approximately $25,000,000 worth of sugar annually, more than the average exports of the British West Indies. Free trade with Canada would thus assure the islands a market for their sugar. Similarly, Canada would provide a market for a large proportion of their other staple products. With this assured market, the buying power of the British West Indies should be substantially increased during the next decade. The $30,000,000 of Canadian sales to the islands represent, therefore, only the immediate trade possibilities of such an agreement.

Since the time when the trade agreement, outlined above, was proposed in the Canada-West Indies Magazine, there have been a number of favorable editorial comments from West Indian sources. It is thought that the discussion of this plan will play an important part in the Canada-West Indian conference in Ottawa this Summer.

A gentleman strolling alongside a canal observed an old negro and a colored boy fishing. A moment later a splash was heard. The boy had fallen into the water. The old darky, however, jumped in after the lad and succeeded in getting him safely to the bank. There he stood the victim on his head to let the water drain out, and it was at this moment that the gentleman arrived on the scene with profuse expressions of admiration for the prompt rescue.

"It was noble of you," the gentleman declared rather rhetorically, "to plunge into the water in that way at the risk of your life to save the boy. I congratulate you on your brave display of heroic magnanimity."

The old colored man answered with an amiable grin:

"All right, boss. Ah doan know nuffin' 'bout mag'nimity. But Ah jess had to git dat boy out de water. He had de bait in his pocket."

During the Civil War an old negro was deeply interested in the conflict, but showed no sign of wishing to take part in it. A white man questioned him one day:

"The men of the North and South are killing one another on your account. Why don't you pitch in and fight yourself?"

"Has you-all ever seen two dogs fightin' over a bone?" the negro demanded.

"Many times, of course," was the answer.

The old negro chuckled as he said: "Did you ever seen de bone fight?"

"Well—no!"

"Dat's all! I'se de bone."

Fifth Annual Health Day Held at Luxton Attracts Exceptional Attendance

LUXTON, May 7.—The fifth annual children's Health Day, held here under the auspices of the Esquimalt Rural Health Service, was a most successful affair and attracted one of the largest crowds the district has had. The afternoon programme opened by everybody singing "O Canada." The junior girls of Happy Valley School staged a very pretty Maypole dance, after which came the sports, the chief event of the afternoon. A large number of children from the different school districts took part. There was very keen competition, and all the schools are to be commended for their very creditable performances.

PRIZE WINNERS

The winning schools are as follows: The R. J. Van der Byl Cup for boys' sports was won by Langford School; Mrs. Herbert Pendray Cup for girls' sports was won by the same school; the Provincial Board of Health Cup was captured by the Cowichan Health Centre.

Other winners were:

Dola Dunsmuir Trophy for posters—Langford School.

Posters — Happy Valley School, Edith Woodruff, Betty Hutchinson. Elsie Hutchison; Langford School, Eric Joe, Howard Smedley; Goldstream School, Edgar Duff, Donald Drummond.

Health slogans—Langford School, Alan Jackson; Happy Valley School, Esther Hutchison; Goldstream School, Vivian Blade.

Essays—Langford School, Pamela Bennett, Stanley Jackson, Alan Jackson, Glenya Smedley, Tom Dixon; special, Eileen Dixon; Happy Valley School, Esther Hutchison, Etta McLeod, George Hutchison; Goldstream School, Gordon McKenzie, Edgar Blake; special, Marie Bailey.

EVENING PROGRAMME

Mrs. Bullen, vice-president of the Esquimalt Nursing Service, opened the evening programme, as the president, Mrs. W. G. Cushman, was unable to attend. Dr. Young, who put on a moving picture during the evening, both comic and educational, during his talk warmly complimented Mrs. Claude Moss, who was instrumental in procuring the Board of Health Cup, on her long and useful association with the Health Centre. John Kyle, Department of Education, gave a lecture on "How Do You Spend Your Leisure Time," which was greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Simpson, of Langford's class of small children, gave a very charming piano recital. Langford's junior boys, dressed in uniform, gave a song entitled "We Are Soldiers Brave." Happy Valley gave an exhibition of acrobatic dancing by the junior girls. The outstanding figures in this tableau were little Miss Heath, Miss Roche and Miss Anderson. The Goldstream Tiny Tots did a small alphabetical act.

Dr. Irene Hudson presented the Van der Byl prize, and Dr. Young, provincial health officer, presented the balance of the prizes.

Great credit is due to all those instrumental in getting up and putting on this Health Day. L. B. Matthews, principal of Happy Valley School, organized the sports, and the concert was convened by Mrs. J. Kipling. The Happy Valley and Luxton Women's Institutes were responsible for the refreshments.

Prize List of Saanich Show Is Augmented

SAANICHTON, May 7.—A meeting of the directors of the North and South Saanich Agricultural Society was held on Friday evening in the Agricultural Hall, Saanichton, at which plans for the exhibition were advanced. The sections covering horses, cattle, sheep, swine, goats, rabbits, poultry, grains, grasses, field roots for stock, potatoes, vegetables and fruits, were revised, and additional classes in many cases added.

Interest is being exhibited in five classes which are being added to the prize list, and for which valuable prizes are to be given by the Saanich Council. These classes are of special interest to grain growers as they have been added through the efforts of the reeve and council to stimulate interest in the World's Grain Show, to be held at Regina, July 25 to August 6. It is intended that winners in these classes shall be encouraged in every way to exhibit at the Vancouver Winter Fair.

The cattle section promises to bring out the highest class stock on the peninsula in the various classes. A special class in this section for boys and girls, sponsored by the Saanich Jersey Club, has been arranged. Valuable support is being rendered by the Victoria Branch of the B.C. Goat Breeders' Association. The goats to be exhibited will be of an exceedingly high standard, and will comprise some of the best of the province.

Medical Association Holds Annual Meeting

NANAIMO, May 7.—The annual meeting of the Upper Island Medical Association was held in Nanaimo recently, some twenty-eight medical men being in attendance.

Dr. Briggs, of Courtenay, was elected president, and Dr. Alan Hall, of Nanaimo, secretary.

The meeting was addressed by several Vancouver practitioners, and Dr. J. T. McPhee, of Nanaimo, the last named giving an interesting address on "Irregular Practitioners and Healers."

WILKINSON ROAD Y.P.S.

A meeting of the Young People's Club of Wilkinson Road United Church took place in the church on Monday evening, with eighteen members present. Fred Quick took charge of the meeting and Mrs. Switzer gave a missionary talk on "Trinidad." Arrangements were made and committees formed for a banquet to be held at the home of Mrs. Quick on Friday, May 15. In order that members might attend the Y.P. rally at the annual conference to be held in the Metropolitan Church, the local meeting for May 18 has been cancelled.

Junior Orchestra Wins Applause of Nanaimo Audience

NANAIMO, May 7.—A big success was the concert given by the Nanaimo Junior Orchestra last evening in the Odd Fellows' Hall. The audience was the largest seen at a concert in Nanaimo for some time. This is the final concert of the season, although the boys will play at the hospital in the near future.

Special mention must be made of the recitations given by Olive Burnip, cornet solos by Tommy Douglas and Victor Carlson, saxophone solos by George Gunniss, and the violin duet by Don Beggs and John Miller, offered variety and pleased the audience. The orchestra numbers were well played, and the finale of the evening, "Il Trovatore," received a tremendous ovation. Ensemble work was very good, the solos very artistically played, and the impression left upon the audience will remain for a long time.

Much credit is due to Harry Smith for his untiring efforts with the boys and girls, and it is to be hoped, that in the coming Fall, this group of youngsters will be heard again quite often.

Legion Smoker Is Open to All Ex-Service Men

LANGFORD, May 7.—Prince Edward Branch, No. 91, Canadian Legion is sponsoring a gathering of all ex-service men resident in the district covered by the branch, on Saturday night, May 16. There will be a smoking concert, with short speeches on the aims, objects and achievements of the legion and kindred organizations.

Several representatives of the city branches have been invited to attend, and while speeches will be cut to a minimum, the gathering will be enlightened on all angles of the legion's work.

The smoker, which will be held in the Prince Edward Branch clubhouse, on the Island Highway, near Langford Lake, will be free to all the ex-service men in the district, which, besides Langford and vicinity, embraces Colwood, Metchosin, Albert Head, Rocky Point and East Sooke. Members of the branch may bring a guest, not necessarily ex-service, for a small charge. All ex-service men proposing to attend are requested to apply to Comrade E. R. Johnson, Metchosin, or Comrade A. G. Mackie, Langford, for tickets of admission.

Concert and Dance At Metchosin Hall To Be Given May 29

METCHOSIN, May 7.—The Metchosin and District Community Club proposes to stage a concert and dance at the Metchosin Hall on Friday, May 29. In keeping with one of the club's purposes, which aims at fostering the latent talents of the younger generation, this entertainment will be entirely provided by those of twenty-one and under, and will be distinctly novel in character.

The club now numbers 120 members, and may shortly claim to be truly representative of the districts of Rocky Point, Albert Head, William Head and Metchosin, and when it is realized that only three months have elapsed since its birth, it would appear that the need of such an organization existed, even if it was not realized.

The executive committee has decided to donate one of the major prizes for the sheep shearing contest which will be held shortly under the auspices of the Metchosin Sheepbreeders' Association.

FUNERAL AT NANAIMO

NANAIMO, May 7.—The funeral of Alphonse Clarck took place from the D. J. Jenkins undertaking parlors yesterday at 2 o'clock. The funeral was conducted under the auspices of the F.O.E. lodge, and was well attended. L. Williams and B. Work, president and chaplain respectively, conducted the ritual of the order, while Rev. Canon Hitchcox conducted the church services. With Mrs. R. T. Wilson at the organ, the hymns, "Rock of Ages" and "A Few More Years Shall Roll" were sung in the chapel. The pallbearers were William McKinney, C. Reese, J. Gerard, A. E. Kennel, J. Steel and H. Lomas, all members of the local Eagle lodge.

PLAY AT MARIGOLD

The Electra Dramatic Society presented "Red Acre Farm" at Marigold Hall on Friday, May 15, at 7:45 o'clock. Part of the proceeds will be in aid of the fund for painting the hall.

MAQUINNA IN TODAY

From Port Alice, on the West Coast of Vancouver Island, via way ports, the Ss. Princess Maquinna, of the B.C. Coast Service, is due to arrive at the Belleville Street docks of the Canadian Pacific at 11 o'clock this morning. After disembarking Victoria passengers and discharging local cargo, the Maquinna will continue to Vancouver.

The schoolboy, after profound thought, wrote this definition of the word "spine" at his teacher's request:

"A spine is a long, limber bone. Your head sets on one end and you set on the other."

PRINCE RUPERT ALONGSIDE DOCK

Esquimalt Firm Expects to Complete Work on Ferry Ship Tomorrow

Floated from the Government drydock early yesterday morning, the Canadian National Ss. Prince Rupert is still lying alongside the fitting-out wharf and will cross to Yarrows plant today if the weather moderates. The Esquimalt firm hopes to be able to turn the reconditioned ship over to the Canadian National Steamships, Limited, by tomorrow night.

Messrs. Yarrows report the Canadian Pacific Coast Service Ss. Princess Norah as entering the drydock for general overhaul yesterday morning, being floated in at 8 o'clock. She will be floated out again this evening.

On the cradle at the Yarrows plant, the Island Tug and Barge Company's tug Hopkins is having repairs made to her hull. She has been up during the past week, and is nearly ready for duty again.

William Bagley Will Remain in Jail Until Extradition Hearing

BELLINGHAM, May 7 (AP).—William Bagley will stay in the Whatcom County jail until the matter of his extradition to Canada to face charges of robbing the Harrison Hot Springs Hotel, April 27, has been disposed of, Judge Edward E. Hardin ruled in Superior Court today.

Bagley lost two rounds of his preliminary fight against the charges when the writ of habeas corpus, previously obtained, was quashed and the court held the case nonbailable.

Bagley must await the extradition hearing, May 23.

Royal Oak

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Quick, Wilkinson Road, entertained at their home on Wednesday evening, their guests being members of the four Royal Oak basketball teams and a few other friends. The evening passed pleasantly with dancing and court whist, the prize winners being Miss Daisy Blackstock and Mr. Barker. Mr. Reeves, manager of the club, gave a splendid report of the successful year and good financial standing. Supper was served at midnight, when three rousing cheers were accorded Mr. and Mrs. Quick, Mr. Reeve, Mr. Cariss and Mr. Bob Whyte for their untiring efforts throughout the season.

All judicial humor, fortunately, is not retrospective. While some judges dig it up from the past, others are busy extracting it from the present.

A little while ago 't was stated before a well-known judge that a company was to run a revue named "King Tut-Tut."

His Honor rubbed his brow.

"What does 'Tut-Tut' mean?" he inquired.

"It is an expression," replied counsel, "used on the golf links when a man misses his drive."

"You mean, when the clergy are present," suggested the judge, amid laughter.

EMPIRE DAY SUNDAY; HOLIDAY ON MONDAY

Empire Day, May 24, originated as a public holiday because it was the birthday of Queen Victoria, born at Kensington in the year 1819, falls on a Sunday this year, and therefore it will be celebrated on Monday, May 25.

Recognition of the general holiday this year will be slight. So far as known, no general celebration has been arranged and this is due to the coming of the Jubilee of Confederation of British Columbia on July 20, for which event civic and public organizations are now preparing. It will be the first time in years that the holiday has been passed over without some sort of celebration.

Monday, May 25, is a statutory holiday, and all banking institutions, legal branches, shops and offices, as well as the schools, will be closed on that day.

GOV'T IS SUSTAINED ON CONFIDENCE VOTE

OTTAWA, May 7 (CP).—Government was sustained on a nonconfidence division in the House of Commons tonight by a majority of forty-six, when, in addition to a united Conservative support, the U.F.A. members in the chamber at the time voted with the ministry. Division was on a Liberal amendment which condemned the agricultural policy of the administration. The vote stood: For, 61; against, 107.

Farmer Brown's Boy Guesses the Answer

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Chance will often solve for you
The puzzle reason cannot do.
—Farmer Brown's Boy.

Farmer Brown's boy puzzled and puzzled over the problem of how little Mr. Garter Snake could have reached the eaves-trough of the back porch. That he had fallen from there there wasn't a shadow of doubt in the mind of Farmer Brown's boy. He was positive of it. Nothing that Farmer Brown could say could make him think otherwise.

"I know he couldn't have been up there, but he was up there and he fell from there," he would declare.

For days he studied over it, but without finding a solution. Finally he gave up thinking about it, deciding that it was a puzzle that never would be solved. It was a couple of weeks later that as he stood back of the barn looking off across the Green Meadows he saw Redshoulder alight in the top of a tree. He had seen Redshoulder there often. It was a favorite perch of Redshoulder's. From it he could look down on the Green Meadows and with those wonderful eyes of his see whatever might move in the grass for some distance away.

Farmer Brown's boy knew all about Redshoulder's nest. He had even climbed up to it. He had a liking for those big, handsome Hawks, and he knew that they were friends. He was glad to have them about and he had no fear that they would take any of his chickens. He liked to watch them hunt. So now he watched Redshoulder, wondering how long it would be before he would see a Mouse or something else good for hungry babies.

It was only a few minutes before Redshoulder flew over the Green Meadows, hovered a minute, then dropped in the grass. Almost instantly he was in the air again heading for the Green Forest. In his claws was something that squirmed and twisted.

"He caught a Snake," exclaimed Farmer Brown's boy. "I've read that some Hawks catch snakes, but this is the first time I ever saw it done. I think they usually kill the Snake on the ground, but that one is alive and very much so."

Redshoulder was flying in a line that continually brought him nearer. Suddenly the Snake wriggled free and dropped. Redshoulder checked his flight, turned and shot down after the Snake. He caught it again in the grass and this time the Snake was dead when Redshoulder once more started for the Green Forest.

He saw Redshoulder alight in the top of a tree

Suddenly as Farmer Brown's boy watched him disappear over the tree-tops he thought of little Mr. Garter Snake in the eaves-trough and the solution of that strange puzzle flashed into his mind.

"I do believe that's it!" he exclaimed aloud.

"What is it?" asked Farmer Brown who had come up just in time to hear the exclamation.

"I know how that Garter Snake got in the eaves-trough!" cried Farmer Brown's boy. "It is as plain as the nose on my face. He was caught, but not hurt, by Redshoulder. As Redshoulder was flying over the house on his way home that Snake wriggled free and dropped on the porch roof. Redshoulder saw me and wasn't bold enough to try to get the Snake again and it rolled down into the eaves-trough. It crawled along this until it fell from the end just as I came along. By that time Redshoulder was out of sight. That's the answer."

Then he told Farmer Brown how he had just seen Redshoulder catch a Snake and drop it on his way to the Green Forest. "Of course, that is what happened with that other Snake," he concluded.

"Perhaps you are right," replied Farmer Brown. "It is what I would call circumstantial evidence, but perhaps you are right."

"I know I am," replied Farmer Brown's boy, "and I am glad that puzzle is solved. There is always an answer to a puzzle, but I didn't think I was going to find that one."

The little set in the suburban avenue had long decided that Browne was overproud of his bargain in the second-hand car market, and that something must be done to dampen his aggressive enthusiasm.

Robinson, one of the set, was on his way to the city one day when he met Browne in his second-hand car.

"I'm going to the station," said the car owner. "Would you like a lift?"

"No, thanks," said Robinson, seizing his chance. "I'm in rather a hurry.'

THE DOT CARTOONIST, BY GEORGE BELL

Here we have Jerry the Juggler tossing hen fruit into the ozone. On his nose there is a stick and on the stick there is a ball. On the ball there is a man. On the man's feet there is a . . . (Kindly draw straight lines between the numbers.)

SHELL OUT!

We have an inquiry as to the "origin of that slang expression 'shell out' for paying!"

We are all familiar with this expression, of course, in which the reference is to the more or less painful operation involved in separating some people from some of their money! The expression, however, properly speaking, is not slang! That is not unless you can include in that lowly class a phrase which has not only respectable but literary and time-honored ancestry as well!

For the first use of "shell out" for making a disbursement, in the sense of extracting or removing something from a shell, was by Maria Edgeworth in her "Moral Tales," published in 1801.

(Copyright, 1931, by Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

The teacher had explained to the class that the Indian women are called squaws. Then she asked what name was given to the children.

"Porpoises," came the eager answer.

But a little girl whose father bred pigeons called excitedly:

"Please, teacher, they're squabs!"
